SAN FRANCISCO POLICE PERMEATED WITH GRAFT SAYS MAYOR M'CARTHY

Tells Commission That Protection Is Extended to Vice, While City Is Overrun With Pickpockets and Bunco Men---Police Chief Martin Is Involved in the Scandal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—That the local police department is so permeated with graft that it must be completely reorganized, was the substance of a communication which was sent late today by Mayor McCarthy to the police commission.

The communication was the first official answer to the complaints which have been made lately against the department. Following the accusations of a local paper that the police were taking money from the dance hall proprietors in exchange for protection, District Attorney Fickert made an investigation, at the conclusion of which he addressed a communication to Chief of Police Martin, in which he stated that he had verified the charges. The district attorney then requested Martin to take steps to reform the conduct of the dance halls.

Today's communication was not unexpected as it had been freely rumored that the mayor was on the point of taking charge of the situation. In his letter to the commissioners, Mayor McCarthy declared that he was convinced that the police of this city are extending protection to criminals, while they are withholding it from those entitled to it. He declared that the city is overrun with pickpockets and bunco men, who are presuming on the proven inefficiency of the detective department. The communication stated that the lawlessness of the dance hall keepers in the so-called uptown tenderloin had become so pronounced that it might be necessary to close all of these resorts.

In conclusion the mayor recommended to the commission that it take such action as might be necessary to restore the department to a condition of efficiency.

The mayor was closeted with Chief of Police Martin for the greater part of the day and when the police commission was called to order it was rumored that the chief's resignation would be received. Immediately after the reading of the communication, the commission retired into executive session.

After placing the letter of Mayor McCarthy on file the police commission considered the case in executive session and then adjourned until tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock when the matter will again be taken up.

ROOSEVELT TALKS NEW NATIONALISM

Denounces Dishonest Politicians and Untruthful Newspapers.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 15.—Theodore Roosevelt said today that he is not talking revolutions in declaring his new political creed. Neither is he making an appeal to mob rule.

In a staunch defense of his doctrine of the "new nationalism," he declared that he was merely urging the application of old moralities to modern conditions. At the same time he replied with spirit to those who have been opposing him and hotly denounced newspapers, which he said, attacked honest public men.

Colonel Roosevelt's address was delivered at the Suffolk County Fair at Riverhead, L. I. He rode about 120 miles in an automobile to and from Riverhead and spoke to a great crowd on the fair grounds.

The colonel's exposition of "new nationalism" came at the close of a speech in which he also denounced dishonest corporations, dishonest men of wealth and political bosses. He made no reference to the New York state political situation.

CHANGED CONDITIONS.

"I have noticed a good deal of comment on my speech on 'new nationalism,'" he said. "All that new nationalism means is the application of old time moralities to the changed conditions of the day.

"I wish to see greater governmental efficiency because we have to deal with a greater business efficiency. Simple laws are all that are necessary in small communities when there is no big business and each man works for himself. When you get masses of wealth gathered together and great corporations developing, conditions then become so changed that there also must be an increase in governmental activity to control the wealth for business efficiency.

"I would not do any wrong to the great corporation, but I don't intend to rely only on the big corporation's good nature to see that the corporation does not do harm against us. I want to see such control of the wealth now gathered for business uses as to favor the honest man who uses the wealth genuinely for the service of the public and to make the dishonest man feel that he has to do what is right; and if he does not feel it we shall see to it that he does.

WHOLE CREED.

"That is my whole creed. That is all there is in it. There is no revolution in it. There is no appeal to mob rule. On the contrary, I recognize mob violence as an enemy of the public just as much as lawless wealth. I am against the poor man who is guilty of the crime of lawless violence, and men it is in my power I shall try to punish him by all standards, just as whenever I have the power I will join with those that see to it that the corrupt man of wealth is good—not because he likes it, but because he has to be."

FEAR TONG WAR TO BE REOPENED

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 15.—The desperate feud between the Hop Sings and the Suey Sings is still smouldering, despite the announcement that the tong war had subsided, and at any time other murders may be added to the already long list. The acclamations of peace which the Hop Sings have poured about have been removed and the hatchet men of both tongs are lying low waiting for the other side to make the first move. The highbinders are being watched closely by the police, who fear the present apparent calm is only a lull before a more desperate and murderous battle than the tongs have yet had.

POWERS DEFEATS EDWARDS ON PLEA OF "VINDICATION"

LONDON, Ky., Sept. 15.—By the decisive majority of more than 7,000 Caleb Powers defeated Congressman Don C. Edwards for the Republican nomination for representative from the eleventh congressional district of Kentucky in a primary election today.

Congressman Edwards is serving his third term. Powers, who defeated him for nomination, made his race upon an appeal to the voters of the district to give him the nomination as a "vindication" of his alleged complicity in the assassination of Governor Goebel in 1900.

Powers, who was secretary of state at the time of the assassination, was confined in jail during eight years, his first three trials resulting in conviction and the fourth in a disagreement.

UTAH DEMOCRATS WANT PROHIBITION

"Dry" Delegates Win Fight in Convention After Hot Contest.

PROVO, Utah, Sept. 15.—State wide prohibition was put forward by the Democrats of Utah as a paramount issue at their state convention today. They refused to ask for a prohibitory amendment to the constitution, although a considerable minority favored that course, but inserted a strong plank in the platform pledging the party to an anti-liquor law. The fight waxed warm at times, but the dry delegates mustered a large majority on the final vote.

Ferdinand Erickson of Mount Pleasant was nominated for congressman and C. C. Richards of Ogden for the supreme bench.

The convention rejected a plank calling for a public utilities commission, which was advocated by friends of railroad regulation.

In addition to the prohibition law the Democratic platform demands direct primary elections, the election of United States senators by popular vote, the initiative and referendum and recall and a tariff commission. The conservation plank adopted advocates co-operation between the state and national governments and the widest use of public lands for settlement and mining.

OFFICERS STUDY SCENE OF BATTLE

Where Reds and Blues Will Shed Fictitious Gore at Atascadero.

CAMP ATASCADERO, Sept 15—The first day of the four weeks of army maneuvers which began today at Camp Atascadero under Brigadier General Tasker H. Bliss, was spent by the regulars in the camp and by many of the officers in familiarizing themselves with the topography of the country over which the field operations will take place. In many respects the maneuvers and field movements of the regular troops and the national guard of California, Arizona and New Mexico will be more extended in scope this time and more difficult in the problems involved than were the field operations two years ago.

Sixteen officers have been detailed as umpires to observe the operations of the troops and to render decisions in the game of war between the "red" and the "blue" forces. Each officer will be placed in command of larger bodies of troops in the field than is afforded him opportunity at any of the army posts. The manner in which they acquit themselves will be decided by the umpires and by the commander-in-chief and his chief of staff, Major J. M. Wright.

PAY-DAY IN CAMP.

Today was "pay-day" in camp, an event in which the troops take much interest. Major E. Smith, chief paymaster, and Fred Foster, paymaster's clerk, began this morning the work of paying off the 3600 regulars now in camp. By tomorrow night about $40,000 will have been disbursed.

Tomorrow morning the troops will move into the field for the first operations of the present maneuvers. The infantry will be given problems of attack and defense which will extend over the rolling ground in the southern part of the reservation which comprises the big maneuver field. The evolutions and tactical movements will be by battalions, which probably will be supported by machine gun platoons. The cavalry will operate in squadron formation, while the artillery, signal corps and other branches of the service will have special instructions during the day.

The first of the national guard will reach camp tomorrow, when eight companies of the territorial troops of Arizona will arrive on two special trains. Major F. R. Day of the Thirtieth infantry, commanding Fort Mason at San Francisco, has been detailed as "coach" to the Arizona militia with the title of "inspector instructor."

An effort is being made to interest some of the amateur aviators in the state in making aeroplane flights at Camp Atascadero to demonstrate the practicability of aeroplanes for military purposes. As the War Department has failed to grant the request for a detachment from the army aerial corps with aeroplanes or dirigibles, and as there is no appropriation available for such experiments by the army, the only chance of making such experiments here lies in the hope that some of the ambitious California aviators will volunteer their services.

INSURGENTS MAY FUSE ON JUDICIAL TICKET

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 15.—Insurgent Republican leaders from every county in the state will hold a conference in Tacoma, September 28th, and on the following day will confer with Democratic leaders regarding fusion on the supreme court justice candidates to be nominated by the Democratic state convention that day. The Republican candidates were nominated at a convention which devoted most of its time to hearing speeches denouncing insurgency. If fusion is effected, the Insurgents expect two places on the Democratic state ticket.

ILLINOIS PRIMARIES SHOW DIVIDED RESULTS ON INSURGENCY

Congressman Foss Is Defeated by Englehard, a Progressive.

CANNON NOMINATED

"Lorimer Democrats," Including Brown, Win in Large Numbers.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—2 a. m.—At this hour the indications are that Congressman George E. Foss, after many years in Congress, during which he has become a strong member of the Republican organization, may be defeated by George E. Englehard, Progressive. Returns from 104 precincts out of 147 in the Tenth district give Englehard 3132 against 2786 for Foss.

James R. Mann, an outspoken Cannon man, met stout resistance from his Progressive opponents in the Second district.

Returns were meager, but the first few precincts showed a close race.

The Democrats who made William Lorimer's election to the Senate possible were in nearly every instance renominated. The Standpatters and Progressives split even in the eleventh and thirteenth districts. John C. McKenzie, a Progressive, was nominated in the Thirteenth by the Republicans, while in the eleventh George W. Conn, Jr., who opposed a Progressive, was nominated.

Speaker Cannon carried every county in his district. Two years ago the Speaker was unopposed, so a comparison of his plurality today with the figures at the previous election are valueless.

LORIMER DEMOCRATS WIN.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—The so-called Lorimer Democrats won in large numbers at today's primaries. Three of the four law makers now under indictment on charges connected with the election of Lorimer were elected.

"The pumpkin" system is said to be largely accountable for this result. By this system where there were three candidates two candidates might be ignored and the entire trio of votes cast for one. Representatives of the reform sources declared that the outlook is not so dismal from their viewpoint as might at first appear. They say that enough seats had been won to indicate that the next House would be under different control from that which ruled when Lorimer was elected to the Senate.

Among those renominated are Lee O'Neil Browne, the Democratic minority leader, recently acquitted in Cook county of charges of bribing a legislator to vote for Lorimer, but against whom there is another indictment at Springfield. Senator John Broderick, also indicted on a charge of bribery at Springfield, was renominated. Similar honor was given Robert E. Wilson, who is charged with perjury in connection with the alleged St. Louis jackpot. Joseph S. Clark, another of the representatives indicted at the state capital, apparently was defeated.

ROOSEVELT BEGINS TO BREAK DOWN THE "OLD GUARD" FORCES

NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—The first break in the ranks of the Old Guard in Kings county, where Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the Republican State committee, has for years been the acknowledged leader, came today with the announcement by Reuben L. Haskell, Republican leader of the Twenty-third district, that he will support "Progressives" under Colonel Roosevelt's leadership.

Chairman Woodruff, before leaving for Syracuse tonight, declined to discuss Haskell's decision.

Lloyd C. Griscom went on record today in favor of an absolute endorsement of President Taft's administration by the Republican state convention.

CHOLERA IN ITALY.

ROME, Sept. 15.—Five new cases and two deaths of cholera have been reported during the last twenty-four hours in southeastern Italy.

COLLEGE PRESIDENT RUNS FOR GOVERNOR

New Jersey Democrats Nominate Woodrow Wilson of Princeton.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 15.—The Democratic state convention today nominated Dr. Woodrow Wilson, president of Princeton University, for governor of New Jersey.

Dr. Wilson was nominated on the first ballot and received forty more votes than was necessary to nominate him. The platform adopted was in line with the Democratic platform of three years ago, except that it was more specific in advocacy of reforming measures, including the conferring of rate making power upon the present utilities commission.

Dr. Wilson accepted the nomination and made an address which was highly pleasing to the delegates.

After discussing the platform, Mr. Wilson said:

"There are three great questions before the people—reorganization and economy in administration; equalization of taxation and the control of corporations.

"Other important questions are the proper liability of employers, the question of corrupt practices in elections and the question of conservation.

"Our system of government should not be unnecessarily complicated and elaborate and there should not be too many seperate commissions and bodies."

Discussing the question of corporations the speaker said:

"Corporations should not be favored in the matter of taxation. The power to regulate taxation and fix rates should be vested in a public utilities commission. The regulation of corporations is much more the duty of the state than of the federal government."

In concluding Dr. Wilson said:

"The playing of politics is to be deprecated. Measures having for their object the bettering of our condition should be conceived in the largest spirit and urged by leaders who are statesmen and demagogues."

PRESIDENT TAFT HAS BIRTHDAY

BEVERLY, Sept. 15.— President Taft was 53 years old today and celebrated his birthday quietly. He was fairly deluged with telegrams of congratulation, one of the messages coming from King George V. of England.

The President golfed during the morning with John Hays Hammond and Captain Archibald Butt and tonight he ate a birthday dinner with his friends, the McMillans of Cincinnati, who have a summer place near here. Mrs. Taft is in New York.

TWO AUTO PARTIES ROBBED BY BANDITS

PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 15.—Masked robbers held up two automobile parties about a mile north of Oregon City tonight, and at the point of revolvers the victims were relieved of several hundred dollars in money and jewelry.

The first car stopped contained A. W. Cheney, a Portland business man, his wife and family. Two robbers jumped on the running boards, and poking revolvers in the faces of the occupants of the car ordered them to hand over their valuables. From Cheney, a gold watch and several dollars in money was secured. Mrs. Cheney was compelled to strip her fingers of her rings, one of which she valued at $200.

Within a few minutes after the Cheney robbery and practically at the same spot, the robbers in like manner halted the automobile of John H. Gibson of Milwaukee, Oregon, who was accompanied by his wife. From Mrs. Gibson the robbers secured diamond rings and earrings valued at $450, while Gibson's watch and purse were taken.

SHERMAN BEATEN BY ROOSEVELT

UTICA, N. Y., Sept. 15.—An attempt to substitute a resolution endorsing Vice President Sherman at the Republican town primary at Loweville last night, for one endorsing former President Roosevelt and Governor Hughes was defeated, the Roosevelt-Hughes endorsement being adopted.

PRESIDENT TAFT WANTS A UNITED PARTY AND WILL IGNORE FACTIONS

Says Recent Primaries and Conventions Prove Progressives Express Republican Sentiment in Many States—Will Not Discriminate in Handing Out Federal Patronage.

BEVERLY, Sept. 15.—Beverly was not a little puzzled tonight as to the exact meaning of the letter made public here today in which Secretary Charles D. Norton, reflecting the views of President Taft, announced that the policy of withholding patronage from Progressive Senators and Represenatives had been abandoned and that it was the purpose of the administration to treat all Republicans alike. The letter was written to an unnamed political leader in Iowa, an Insurgent stamping ground.

No interpretation of the document could be obtained from official sources. It was admitted that a variety of interpretations might be placed upon it from the view point of different political observers, but it was insisted that the letter was simply a formal announcement of a policy that soon would have been discovered in various appointments of postmasters that are about to be made in some of the Progressive states.

The suggestion that the letter seemed to indicate a turn toward the Progressives on the part of President Taft was met by a statement that President Taft always has been a "progressive" himself and that his record for Progressive legislation during his first year in office has never been equalled by any other Republican administration.

It was not admitted at the executive offices that recent Progressive success in states like Iowa, Kansas, California and Wisconsin had influenced the President. Neither was it admitted that results in these states were at all displeasing to him. Taft declared last winter that his test of real Republicanism was support of the party's national platform. All the Progressive states have announced fealty to this platform and the President is said to be more than willing to take the Progressive leaders at their word and he assuredly will give them an opportunity this winter to carry some more of the platform pledges into effect.

The President declares through Norton that the value of federal patronage has been greatly over-estimated, but taken for what it may be worth, he does not propose to let it stand any longer as a hindrance to party harmony.

Distinct objection is raised at Beverly these days to the term "Insurgent." On the other hand there is a disposition to point out many of Taft's utterances and acts of the part as evidence of a real progressiveness on his part. It is also pointed out the President has had to work with the machinery his party gave him. It is estimated that in the speech he is to deliver before the National League of Republican clubs in New York on October 1 the President will have something to say of his own Progressiveness. This does not mean radicalism or rampant Insurgency, it is pointed out, but a recognition of the real Progressive movement. Meantime the Norton letter is to be allowed to speak for itself without further explanation.

The letter of Secretary Norton, in full, follows:

"BEVERLY, Sept. 15, 1910.—Your letters of the ninth are at hand and I have delayed replying until after the primary elections. The President directs me to express to you and your friend his deepest appreciation of the work which you have done and the powerful assistance which you have extended to the administration from the beginning—an assistance that has contributed much to the legislative and other successes which have been secured. The President recognizes that your efforts have been wholly disinterested; that you have fought sturdily and generously for what you believed to be his interest and the welfare and success of the party. While Republican legislation pending in Congress was opposed by certain Republicans, the President felt it to be his duty to the party and to the country to withhold federal patronage from certain senators and congressmen who seemed to be in opposition to the administration's efforts to carry out the promises of the party platforms. That attitude, however, ended with the primary elections and nominating conventions which have now been held, and the voters have an opportunity to declare themselves.

"The people have spoken. As the party faces the fall elections the question must be settled by Republicans of every shade of opinion, whether the differences of the last session shall be perpetuated or shall be forgotten.

"He recognizes the danger that in certain cases expressions of feeling were so intense as to make it difficult in some instances for factions to come together and work for the party; but, as he stated in his letter to the Republican congressional committee, he believes it can be done and should be done. The President is confident that you will yourselves meet your local and state situation in this spirit, and that you will write to your friends and ask them to do likewise.

"The President feels that the value of federal patronage has been greatly exaggerated and the refusal to grant it has probably been more useful to the men affected than the appointments would have been.

"In the preliminary skirmishes in certain states like Wisconsin and Iowa and elsewhere he was willing, in the interest of what the leaders believed would lead to party success to make certain discriminations; but the President has concluded that it is his duty now to treat all Republican congressmen and senators alike, without any distinction.

"He will follow the usual rule in Republican congressional districts and states and follow the recommendations made by Republican congressmen and senators of whatever shade of political opinion, only requiring that the men recommended shall be good men, the most competent and the best fitted for the particular office.

"Sincerely yours,
(Signed) "CHAS. D. NORTON,
"Secretary to the President."

Colonel Roosevelt spoke with even more than customary earnestness. His words were received with cheers.

"I now want to speak to you as citizens on the great problems that concern all of us. I think every citizen of a free democracy ought to interest above all others the public man whose deeds do not square with his words.

DISHONEST NEWSPAPERS.

"That has two sides. It has to do with the politician who makes promises that he does not keep, and it has to do with newspapers that say what they know is not true.

"There are two prime difficulties in getting good government. One arises from the dishonest politician. I think the corrupt politician no worse an enemy of the people than the man who lies about the honest public servant.

"The corrupt politician is no worse than that corrupt politician's ministry, the newspaper which says what is not true about men in public life. Honesty, truth, courage—you need them just as much in public as in private life."

In concluding his speech he urged greater respect for honest labor.

FINE SELMA MUSCATS SENT IN FOR EXHIBIT

Chamber of Commerce Work Livening Up With the Advent of Fall.

The work of the Chamber of Commerce is beginning to pick up again with the commencement of regular fall activities. Work is going on both with the exhibit planned for the Watsonville "Apple Annual" and the regular displays in the Fresno building.

An interesting exhibit received yesterday was a box of large Muscat grapes, from the ranch of J. S. Boyd, just outside of Selma. The berries of the grapes are larger than the usual run, and the clusters are symmetrical and close. The berries run about an inch and a half to an inch and three-quarters in circumference about their width.

Several displays already have been received for the "Apple Annual." The apples and other fruits for this fair are being kept in cold storage, while the grapes and similar exhibits for the Fresno headquarters will be preserved in a formaldehyde solution.

Seven Indians were jailed for drunkenness and five Hindus were charged with disturbing the peace. WHIPPING THINGS INTO SHAPE FOR OCT. FAIR

Special Trip to Coalinga to Secure Big Exhibit of Oil Products.

Yesterday was "circus day," but that did not operate to the disadvantage of the Fresno Fair—Oct. 3 to 8—but on the other hand it had a decided tendency to help boost the coming fair.

Every town that has asked for space for a "town exhibit" was represented here yesterday. Every eye was wide open to the possibilities awaiting the whole county on account of Fraternal Order Day—when all the local fraternal orders are requested to participate in a parade in honor of the Danish Brotherhood of America.

President Warlow, Vice-President Dickinson, Secretary Powell, Directors McDaniel and Farris, are in favor of any entertainment that is calculated to advance the interests of the Fresno Fair.

"I want $5000 for fireworks," said B. F. Fly, promoter of special events, "and if you will give me that amount I will promise the people of the San Joaquin Valley the finest fireworks display ever seen in the state, and when I say the 'state,' I mean it, for the pyrotechnical display we have in mind so far discounts anything in that line ever attempted on the coast that there can really be no compromise.

"Take my word for it, and add the endorsement of President Warlow and Secretary Powell, that we are going to have the best fair ever held in the San Joaquin Valley," was the enthusiastic way in which the fair's press agent summed up the situation last night.

Geo. L. Warlow, president of the board of directors, is now back from the State Fair, where he procured many attractions for Fresno. When informed that Coalinga had not yet asked for space for an exhibit, President Warlow was amazed.

"Coalinga not on exhibition at our fair!" he exclaimed in amazement. "Well we will all go down to Coalinga next Tuesday and see what's the matter!" he said. "I know," he went on, 'that Coalinga will make and exhibit of oils. That's all we want, but we want that sure. Especially in view of the fact that there will be over 2000 Danish-American visitors here at that time."

SAYS HE WAS ATTACKED BECAUSE LUMBERMAN

Enemies of J. B. White Used Hines as a Medium of Attack.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—An echo of the politics at the recent national conservation congress at St. Paul was heard here today when Edward Hines answered a statement from B. N. Baker, who was president of the St. Paul congress and a member of the credentials committee of that convention.

Hines, according to his own statement, was in a large measure made the medium of an attack, which had, he said, for its purpose the defeat of J. B. White of Kansas City, for president of the congress.

Hines and White both are lumber men. The delegates in general, when they learned that Gifford Pinchot, who is president of the National Conservation Association, refused to allow the use of his name in connection with the presidency of the congress, took it for granted that White, the chairman of the executive committee, would be elected to the place about to be vacated by President B. N. Baker of Baltimore.

Great surprise was felt when White declined the office, moved thereto, according to Hines, by demands that certain delegates should be named on the executive committee. White refused to be bound in advance of his election and a surprise was handed to Henry Wallace of Des Moines, when the presidency was unanimously awarded to him.

"The Illinois delegation drew up a protest against my membership on the credentials committee because I, like eighty other delegates there, was a lumber man, although they gave a different reason for their action," said Hines. "They did not want White or any other lumber man for president. In the absence of any legitimate reason for requesting my withdrawal, the Illinois delegation dragged in silly gossip connecting my name unpleasantly with the election of William Lorimer to the United States Senate. That is a matter which will be discussed when I am a witness before the Lorimer investigating committee which will meet here September 20th.

"Previous to the congress I requested Mr. White not to name me on any committees nor to assign me to any duties in connection with the congress."

Hines exhibited a letter from President Baker in which the latter states that Hines' appointment on the credentials committee was unsolicited. Baker's letter states that he did not for a moment consider a request that Hines withdraw. Another letter, signed by the other members of the committee, states that the committee meetings were at all times harmonious and that Hines acted with the committee until it was discharged.

"My friends on the committee as well as numerous other delegates, incensed at the protest from the delegates from Illinois, wished to voice their resentment and disapproval on the convention floor," continued Hines, "and it was with considerable effort that I dissuaded them."

HUMPHREY SEEMS TO HAVE WON SEAT

SEATTLE, Sept. 15.—Returns from Skagit county received tonight leave practically no doubt that Congressman William E. Humphrey, Standpatter, has been renominated in the first district, having more than 40 percent of the votes cast and a small plurality over Thomas P. Revelle, Insurgent. The Democratic nominee, Superior Judge W. W. Black of Everett, an effective campaigner, and who was elected to his present office by Insurgent Republican votes, is making plans to contest the district with Humphrey, the primary having shown that the district is insurgent by a large majority and that the insurgents lost by splitting their votes among three candidates.

WATERWAYS CONVENTION

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—Plans will be perfected to make this year's convention of the Lakes-to-the-Gulf Deep Waterway association the greatest ever held. The convention will be held in this city November 25 and 26.

Secretary Thomas H. Lovelance has received acceptances from fifteen governors. It is expected that more than thirty will be present at the convention. W. K. Kavenaugh, president of the organization, said yesterday that this year's session would be best ever; that it would not be a much-talk and little-do convention, but that much good would be accomplished.

TO CHANGE MINT METHODS.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Charles Mindeleff, a New York expert metallurgist, has been engaged by the treasury department to make a study of the method of refining and coining gold in the United States mints.

Supt. Kingsford of the New York assay office had a conference with treasury officials today about the proposed reorganization in his office. The administrative methods there and in the sub-treasury at Philadelphia will be reorganized to the new standard established at the treasury in Washington.

RESIGNS JOB BECAUSE HAD NOTHING TO DO

Municipal Official of New York Creates Astonishment.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—New York has a new candidate for a medal of some kind in the person of Robert C. Winter, a municipal office holder in the borough of the Bronx. Winter has just resigned a $4000 a year job on the plea that he did not believe there was any need for the office. His act is unique in the political history of New York City.

Winter was named assistant superintendent of buildings in the Bronx soon after Mayor Gaynor's election. Finding himself restive in the $4000 berth, where he could not find enough work to earn his money, Mr. Winter wrote to President Miller of the Bronx:

"Dear President Miller:—Since I was appointed assistant superintendent of buildings have endeavored to carry on the duties to the best of my ability. I have come to the conclusion reluctantly that the office is not necessary. The administration could, in my judgment, get along quite as well without this office as with it, and I therefore take the liberty of suggesting to you that the office is unnecessary. Please accept my resignation, which is hereby tendered."

The resignation has been accepted to take effect October 1st, and the office will be abolished after that date.

SHAFROTH'S SLATE IS PUT THROUGH

DENVER, Sept. 15.—Adherents of Governor John F. Shafroth, who last night secured his renomination in the Democratic state convention here by the scant official plurality of 27 votes, today finished their work by bringing about the nomination of practically the entire Shafroth slate. The big Denver delegation with 284 votes out of 1100, was unable to stem the Shafroth tide except late tonight, when it assisted in selecting Alex Davidson of Salida county as candidate for state railway commissioner. Every other candidate supported by the Denver men was defeated.

Opposition among the women of Denver county to the renomination of Mrs. Katherine M. Cook as state superintendent of public instruction also went amiss while another plan of the women to nominate a woman for secretary of state failed even more disastrously.

Nominations made today are: For lieutenant governor, Stephen R. Fitzgerald (renominated). For secretary of state, James B. Pearce (renominated). For treasurer, Ready Kenehan. For auditor, H. A. Leddy. For railroad commissioner, Alex Davidson. For superintendent of public instruction, Mrs. Katherine M. Cook (renominated).

RAILROADS BUSY WITH CIRCUS EXCURSIONISTS

Ten Thousand Visitors on Espee Alone; Circus Goes to Visalia.

Ten thousand persons was given last night at the local Southern Pacific offices as a conservative estimate of the number of circus excursionists handled by that road. Five special trains were run out of Fresno last night for the benefit of those here to see the circus, and several regular trains had extra coaches to accommodate the crowds. While no extra trains were operated by the Santa Fe, the regular trains on that road were crowded with passengers on account of "circus day."

Specials were run on the Southern Pacific last night to Tracy, Reedley, Friant, Pollasky, and a fifth to Tracey by way of Merced to take home the circus visitors. In addition to this provision for the "circus day" crowds, eleven extra passenger coaches were added to No. 8, the Los Angeles local, which stops at many points to the south of Fresno. Four extra coaches were put on No. 16, the Sanger train.

FOUR CIRCUS TRAINS

The circus proper traveled in what is technically known as a special in four sections. This would be equivalent to four trains. The circus colony traveled to Visalia, where they will give performances today. Circus trains are run on a close schedule and the scene of activity last night was one of disciplined system.

The private car "Wisconsin," carrying the chiefs of the circus, including one of the Ringling brothers, left last night for Sacramento, en route to the East. The Barnum & Bailey circus and Ringlings' are two of the triumvirate that yearly divide the United States among them, one traveling on the Eastern circuit, one on the western, and one on the Southern circuit.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Ambrosi Navaro, a Mexican, was sent to the county hospital yesterday morning by Patrolman Al Hayes, who found the sick man lying on the sidewalk near the corner of G and Mono streets.

M. Bennett of 1311 O street reported to the police last night that two negroes had stolen a large black overcoat, with velvet collar, from his buggy at the circus grounds. Two colored men were standing near Bennett's buggy and the owner of the coat suspects them of the theft.

While passing through the Fresno street subway in his automobile at 6:30 o'clock last evening, Dr. T. W. Burks was run into by an Italian in a buggy. No damage was done although Dr. Burks stopped to see if the Italian had been hurt or his rig damaged. The Italian drove away before his name could be learned.

FAVORS ELECTION OF U. S. SENATORS

Montana Republican Convention Has Squabble Over Taft Resolution.

MISSOULA, Sept. 15.—The Republican state convention adjourned at 10:30 p. m. after a harmonious session. The much heralded insurgent stampede failed to materialize and the party's platform recommends nothing more startling than the direct election of United States senators.

At the night session a compromise platform was made which was the result of a heated session of the resolutions committee lasting six hours. The contest in the committee was over the introduction of a resolution which endorsed Roosevelt to an extent to which the standpatters thought was slighting the administration. The compromise platform endorses both Taft and Roosevelt and commends the Montana congressional delegation.

Speeches were made tonight by Senators Dixon and Carter and former Senator Mantle.

LOST IN WEIGHT, FELT SMOTHERED, HEART AFFECTED

Characteristic Anaemia Symptoms in the Case of This Salt Lake City Woman Who Was Cured by the Tonic Treatment.

To keep losing in health and strength while money and effort is constantly being spent on treatment is calculated to bring discouragement even to the most hopeful.

That sufferers from anaemic and debilitated conditions are brought to the verge of despair when there is a remedy exactly suited for their treatment is a pathetic fact as is shown by the experience of Miss Ellen Mattis, of No. 282 West Fifth South street, Salt Lake City, Utah, who relates her experience gladly in the hope that others will be helped by it. She says:

"I was all run down, was thin and bloodless and had no color whatever. Two doctors treated me but did not help me that I could see. I kept losing in flesh and weight. I had severe palpitations of the heart and often had to gasp for breath for it seemed that I was being smothered, my heart would beat so fast. I had no appetite and the least exertion tired me all out. I became discouraged with taking so much medicine. Then my mother heard of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and urged me to try them. I felt some improvement from the first box and as I continued to use them my strength and weight increased and my color returned. I became real healthy again and I shall always speak highly of the remedy."

Thin blood is the most frequent cause of debility. As the supply of blood sent to the brain does not carry sufficient nourishment the patient is dull and drowsy, the nerves become starved and there are marked nervous symptoms. As the blood and nerves control digestion the stomach suffers from lack of tone and the victim loses weight and strength.

Whenever a tonic is needed, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills should be given an immediate trial. They quickly enrich the blood and give strength and health to every part of the body. For this reason they have cured anaemia, chlorosis, rheumatism, lumbago, general debility and the after-effects of the grip and fevers.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Tremendous Demand for Preparation That Grows Hair

Since its introduction into America Parisian Sage has been so honestly advertised that its tremendous sales have surprised and even astonished dealers everywhere.

The idea that advertising copy must exaggerate the merits of the goods it aims to sell is false, and the sales of Parisian Sage prove it.

Parisian Sage won't grow hair on bald heads; it isn't guaranteed to grow hair on bald heads.

It's just as easy to grow hair on a rusty tomato can or a brass cannon as it is to grow hair on a head where the hair root is dead.

But if your hair is thin; if it is falling out or splitting at the ends, if your scalp itches and you are bothered with dandruff then the San Joaquin Drug Co. and American makers of Parisian Sage do guarantee it to put an end to these troubles or money back.

Parisian Sage makes hair grow if used before the hair root is dead. It kills the dandruff germs and stops itching scalp. It nourishes the hair roots and falling hair ceases. It puts vitality into the hair and gives it a radiant luster.

It is the favorite hair dressing of refined women because it so quickly refreshes the scalp and not being sticky or greasy is delightful to use.

Sold for only 50 cents a large bottle at the San Joaquin Drug Co. and druggists everywhere. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package. Mail orders filled, charges prepaid, by Giroux Mfg. Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

SELMA ORIENTAL FINED $300 FOR GAMBLING, AFTER BIG RAID

Seven Companions Get Fifty Dollar Fines; Prefer Jail to Paying.

Officers Use Auto in Dash on Joint; Places to Be Kept Open.

SELMA, Sept. 15—Seven Chinese and one Japanese were rounded up in a raid on a gambling joint in Chinatown. The officers under City Marshal W. O. Ingram not only were successful in capturing the participants, but also secured a complete see-ko gambling outfit and several hundred dollars in cash.

The method used in making the raid was quite similar to the last, the officers rushing up in an automobile and passing the guard before he realized what was happening.

This morning the prisoners were taken before Recorder J. L. Mitchell, who fined six of the Chinese and the Japanese $50 each. Wing Fang, the seventh Chinese, was not so lucky and was fined $300, as he has been caught in every raid. All of the Chinese refused to pay their fines and were sent to the county jail to serve out terms at the rate of $1 per day.

Yesterday the officials informed the Chinese that gambling must cease, and that two officers were to be stationed in Chinatown to enforce anti-gambling laws. The two men who were detailed for duty were taken around to the several Chinese, and introduced, so that the Celestials might know them, and the Orientals were informed that they must keep their places open at all times so these special men could come and go at any time. This they were told would insure them from forcible entrance to the property. Evidently the Chinese intended to enjoy gambling as long as possible, for last night's raid was made at almost the last minute before the special officers went on duty.

POPLAR COTTON PRAISED BY SOUTHERN EXPERT AT PORTERVILLE

Republican Campaign Open September 20th; Rally Is Planned.

W. C. T. U. to Have Chapter House; Orange Growers Glad for Rain.

PORTERVILLE, Sept. 15.—T. E. Johnson, a cotton grower of the southern states, and considered in his home city of Memphis, Tennessee to be one of the greatest experts on grades in the Tennessee cotton country, was in this city today, and while here examined samples of cotton which have been grown in the Poplar country within the past year. Mr. Johnson states that the local product would grade with the very best commercial product of the south and would command a high price.

This Poplar cotton is what would be graded "strictly good middling." There is but one better grade raised in the South. That is called "upland middling," and is a grade which is grown on a restricted acreage and is comparatively scarce. The Southern expert asserts that if there is any large acreage which will produce cotton the equal of the samples now on display at the Chamber of Commerce, a new and a very valuable industry may be opened up for this section of the state.

POLITICS ACTIVE.

Locally prominent Republicans have decided that September 20th will be the date for the opening of the fall campaign, when the local situation will be discussed at a rally to be held at the Porterville opera house.

According to the plans as made by the local committee, the meeting is to be addressed by Alfred Daggett, the Republican candidate for county judge; S. S. Ray, candidate for superintendent of schools, Frank Lamberson, candidate for district attorney, and Geo. W. Wythe, who aspires to succeed himself in the assembly.

It was also planned that within a short time after this rally there be held a second one, at which various of the state candidates will speak.

W. C. T. U. BUNGALOW.

At a well attended meeting of the W. C. T. U. held at the home of Mrs. Cora Baker, on Mill street, yesterday afternoon, the ladies of the organization voted to proceed immediately with the erection of a chapter house. As the plans have been outlined, a bungalow is to be built, which will cost about $1600, exclusive of the lot. Several prominent business men, who have made it a condition that their names be kept secret, have agreed to donate a lot for the building. This lot is centrally located and is valued at about $750.00.

Plans for the bungalow call for a reading room, dressing room and a large hall which can be used for banquets for the regular meetings of the society.

GROWERS GLAD.

Rain to the total of .57 of an inch has fallen in the past thirty-six hours and has been an undoubted benefit to the orange district. The moisture has brightened the foliage and improved the appearance of the trees to an extent which is extremely pleasing to the real estate dealers, and the downpour of last night was probably sufficient to save the last irrigation of the year.

At Camp Nelson and other localities in the Hills the rain was very heavy, fully .75 of rain falling in the past twelve hours.

Deciduous fruit growers, fearful of the coming of the showers, had stacked and covered their trays, and it is probable that no damage was done either to the peaches or the prunes. Practically all the grapes have been picked and returns received for the same.

Twenty-five candidates appeared for the first Rugby football practice of the Porterville Hi, at the social field last evening. This is the largest football squad which the local school has produced. With the decision that Rugby is to be the game for the coming season, objections of the parents in many cases has been withdrawn and several of the best athletes of the school, who were not permitted to play the American game, are trying for positions to play the English style of football.

H. L. Pomeroy, Dr. Thibodo and Prof. Smith were on hand last night to give the boys their first lesson in Rugby. At the conclusion of the practice, Pomeroy, who is an old English school star and one of the former bright lights of the Barbarian team in San Francisco, stated that the boys have taken to the game with remarkable rapidity and he avers that if the Porterville team does not bring home the pennant this year, it will be because the other schools of the valley turn out some remarkable players.

Work was well started yesterday on the fence and grandstand being built for the new public athletic field, funds for which are being furnished by the local Chamber of Commerce. F. H. Hess, chairman of the committee in charge of the work of furnishing and equipping the field, has already arranged for the rental of advertising space on the inside of the fence.

PAIR ARRESTED CHARGED WITH GRABBING TWO COIN PURSES

Coalinga Woman "Spots" Men She Thinks Robbed Her in Theater.

Rain Damages Coalinga Stores and Cuts Off Supply of Power.

COALINGA, Sept. 15.—Jack Perry and Charles Smith were brought before Judge Kerr this afternoon at 3:30 on a larceny charge, and both were put under a $50 bond to appear in court Tuesday morning. The two men are charged with stealing two purses from Mrs. Joseph Schoenhoff last evening at a performance in a theater in this city.

Mrs. Schoenhoff was attending the performance in company with her husband and little child in arms. Upon entering the house and being ushered to her seat, Mrs. Schoenhoff laid two small coin purses in a vacant seat while she was arranging herself and infant in an adjoining seat. While she was thus getting settled two men came into the same section of seats and seated themselves in the chairs adjoining the chair on which the purses had been placed on the opposite side from where the owner sat. The lady quite forgot the purses until she noticed that the two men had departed from the house. She then noticed that the coin bags were gone as well as her neighbors. She immediately communicated her loss to her husband, and together they quietly left the theater in hopes of seeing the two men who had occupied seats in the same section.

Upon gaining the sidewalk, Mrs. Schoenhoff espied two men and approached them, asking if either had seen her purse. In answer to her questions, both men denied that they were guilty of any theft and said they knew nothing of the case. The lady then notified Marshal John Moffett of her loss and gave him a good description of the men. Moffett was soon on their trail and in a few minutes had located Perry and placed him under arrest.

Perry denied that he knew anything of the affair and it was not until he had been searched and the purse, which contained some jewelry, had been found on him that he confessed that he was guilty in part to the theft, laying the blame on Charles Smith, who had accompanied him to the show house.

Perry could offer no clew as to the whereabouts of Smith and it was only after a diligent search on the part of Marshal Moffett and his deputies, which lasted after 1 o'clock this morning, that Smith was found at his lodgings. Smith denied that he had taken any part in the theft and claimed to know nothing of the affair other than that he attended the theater with Perry. His room and effects were searched. But the search revealed nothing and the other purse, which contained money and jewelry, was not found. Both men were lodged in the jail and brought before the magistrate this afternoon for arraignment. Smith secured the amount of his bail, which was $50, and the other was taken back to the prison.

Considerable damage was done by the heavy rains of last night and this morning to the Bertrich block on Fifth street, and to the goods of the tenants occupying the stores in that building. The building is roofed with tar paper and could not ward off the heavy torrent of water that fell during the night. The roof, which has a very slight pitch, became soaked through, as the water could not run off as fast as it fell, and soon in many places the water broke through the tar paper.

The most serious damage was done in the furniture store of J. N. Lisle and amounts to about $600. When the employes of the store came down this morning to open the store, the entire front, which is occupied as a sales room was flooded and a large quantity of the polished furniture was damaged and many mattresses, davenports and other goods were ruined. In order to get the water off the floor in this store it was necessary to bore holes in the flooring and allow the water to run underneath the building.

The millinery store occupied by Mrs. M. Henry had a large amount of stock destroyed. The new shipment of fall goods had recently been received and a sale was to have been held this morning. Therefore much of the goods had been placed on the counters for display and were soaked with the torrent of water.

In the Star theater, which was to have been opened Saturday night, the entire moving picture outfit was drenched with water, and the leaky roof allowed the rain to shower upon the rear seats and the electric piano.

Mrs. Usher, who conducts a waist shop, took all her goods out of the window when the rain began, and no damage was done to the stock.

During the heavy rain last night the power line of the Coalinga Water and Electric Company broke near the K. T. and O., and the city was without light and power for about four hours. There was but little inconvenience to any places but saloons and restaurants, as the break did not occur until about midnight.

The boys working on the power line say that the line created a regular launch of fireworks when the juice was turned on in the heavy rain.

James Robertson, superintendent of the Lucile Oil Company, left on the noon train for Hanford on a short business trip.

M'KITTRICK CITIZENS ARE PLANNING TO FORM TRADE BOARD

Growth of Business Causes Railroad to Double Yard Forces.

Gifford Pinchot Favorably Impressed With Surrounding Oil Country.

McKITTRICK, Sept. 15.—A movement to form a board of trade is meeting with general favor, as the value of such an organization to the town and vicinity is fully appreciated. The rapid growth of McKittrick augurs well for its future prosperity, and with a strong and well conducted body to induce immigration, its welfare would be speedily enhanced.

The sanitary condition of the town is being improved, but much yet remains to be done. The Southern Pacific representatives have destroyed considerable rubbish in certain portions and issued warnings against the depositing of trash on premises. As a rule there is comparatively little sickness, but due regard for health necessitates strict compliance with the laws of sanitation.

The railroad authorities report business quite active and steadily increasing. The force in the office and yards has been doubled within the past twelve months and the receipts of freight are an encouraging indication of commercial growth. The express traffic is large, and the volume is constantly expanding.

The local force of carpenters in the employ of the Associated Oil company was sent to Midway on Wednesday to rebuild the cookhouse of the Midway Pioneer, which was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night.

Much interest is manifested in the formation of the Republican club which will be effected next Saturday. The leaders are working zealously to secure a large turnout of the voters and a full registration and vigorous efforts to roll up a strong ballot in the coming election. Good results may be confidently looked for from this section of Kern county.

Gifford Pinchot and brother, Amos Pinchot, accompanied by representatives of Los Angeles and Bakersfield commercial organizations, passed through McKittrick on Tuesday morning, returning from a trip to the Midway oil fields. While here Gifford Pinchot met many prominent citizens, and was most favorably impressed with McKittrick and surrounding territory.

The placing of water meters in business houses and private residences by the Associated Oil company, which furnishes water to the town, has been completed. One hundred and twenty were placed, and the work required two weeks.

The need of protection from fire has been emphasized by the recent very disastrous blaze at Taft, and there is considerable talk of organizing a volunteer fire department. The town has no apparatus for fighting flames, and the only dependence lies in the tanks with which several of the larger business places are equipped, and hand extinguishers.

McKittrick is daily visited by automobile parties en route to the oil fields, many of the visitors being men of prominence and wealth from the East, who are interested in the great industry. The local garages report excellent patronage. The roads are being put in better condition and the work is being pushed in anticipation of the rainy season.

Dr. W. H. Cook, who had four ribs broken in an automobile accident recently, will be able to be out of bed in a day or two. C. Earl Garver, whose left arm was broken at the same time, is recovering rapidly at Bakersfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pearson are visiting friends in Los Angeles.

Mrs. Henry Craft has returned from San Francisco.

William Parrington has gone to the coast for a brief stay.

William W. Price has returned to Coalinga after a visit with friends here.

Richard Haffren, who has been on a visit to Pennsylvania, has returned.

Richard Sinclair, who spent the summer on the coast, has returned to McKittrick and is the guest of Oliver Tidrow.

D. A. Jackson has returned from Fresno Hot Springs.

Harry Maxfield of San Francisco, after a short stay here, has returned home.

J. Garriett has gone to Los Angeles.

Alexander Mutch has returned from a visit in Los Angeles.

M. D. Kerr is at Witter Springs, where he will remain for some time.

Timothy Crowley is back from a trip to San Francisco.

Miss Morgan of Tulare is the guest of Mrs. E. E. Morgan, while en route to San Diego, which city she will make her home in the future.

Frederick Bennett has arrived from Toledo, Ohio, to take a position with one of the McKittrick oil companies.

INCH RAIN FALLS AT HANFORD; CROPS HURT

18-Year-Old Youth Leaves Home Mysteriously With Shotgun and Cash.

HANFORD, Sept. 15.—Last night's heavy rain of more than one inch has caused a great deal of damage to the raisin crop, especially those picked on paper trays. The growers are looking on the bright side of things, however, and readily agree that a good portion of the crop will yet be harvested in fair shape.

No trace is had of the whereabouts of Robert Allen, the 18-year-old youth who disappeared very mysteriously last Sunday from the home of Mrs. C. B. Hisel. When last seen the young man was dressed in his working clothes and had a shot gun with him, also about $50 in cash. It is feared that he may have met with a fatal accident, and yet Mrs. Hisel states that he may have gone east to St. Louis, where his father and sister now reside. Allen has made his home with the Hisels since babyhood.

One of the systematic raids made almost daily in Chinatown by City Marshal Frederick resulted in the arrest last night of Ah Sing and Ah Toy. Today they were each fined $10 by the city recorder for being inmates of a room wherein a fantan layout was conspicuous.

At a postponed meeting of the directors of the Fair Association, held today, it was decided to postpone until September 20th the opening of bids for concessions.

LOCAL OPTION

Local option is a question bigger than Rev. Irving B. Bristol and is a question to be settled by this Board of Supervisors or some other. Coarse abuse of Mr. Bristol is a poor substitute for argument, and likewise the insistence upon the wealth represented in the protest would be more effective in some other country than one priding itself upon popular government.

The unanimous assumption on the part of the speakers professing to represent the wine industry, that local option would ruin that industry, involves a reproach to the industry that it does not deserve. The wine industry should be protected from its spokesmen. The argument seems to be give the people in the country a chance and they will do away with saloons Then when the country saloons (most of them mere roadhouses) are gone, the wine industry is irretrievably lost! Really an enemy of the wine industry could not make a more vicious attack upon it than this. The Republican believes, not only believes but knows, that the wine industry is amply able to stand by itself and does not have to lean on a few tumble-down roadside saloons. In fact the making common cause with the saloons is the most serious blunder this industry can commit. This is not only the opinion of the Republican, but it is the opinion, frequently and frankly expressed, of the more intelligent of the publications devoted to the promotion of the wine growing and wine making.

In fact the wine men themselves, including the very men now fighting local option, united in a petition to prevent a saloon in their neighborhood. The indictment of the roadside saloon could not be more complete had it been drawn by Mr. Bristol. The very heart of the wine industry of the world has withstood this indictment of the saloon in its own neighborhood—the salt of the earth and the cream of society! The rest of the country, even where the people are of the more numerous common kind, want to exercise the same privilege as that exercised by the wine men themselves and they want it so that they can as effectivsly prevent the establishment of a roadhouse in their neighborhood as the wine men have done. Local option gives that privilege, by the majority vote—the fairest way—and without the exercise of other than numerical influence. It is not every district that can present so imposing an array of wealth and sounding patronyms in protest against a saloon as that of the heart of the wine industry.

WHEN SUCCESS FAILS

It is notable that success too often is a failure because winning has created new desires in the light of which victory ceases to have any attractions. Witness the poor women of Colorado. Having succeeded in obtaining the right to vote and to hold office they now wish to dictate in turn what women shall hold office, and for whom the men shall vote, neither of which is granted to them. Better, might they sadly say, have no vote at all than to have it indecisive, while why should a woman hold office, if she is put there by the franchises of villainous men, without the consent of her political sisters.

The Democrats of Colorado have certainly merited the cold shoulder of the women of the state when they continued a woman in the office of state superintendent of schools whom the women did not want. They had better look out. Now the women will all vote for the handsome man the Republicans will nominate in opposition to the Democratic choice.

PARIS OF AMERICA

Mayor McCarthy of San Francisco is evidently not finding the proposition of maintaining a "Paris of America" as simple a one as he carelessly and even gaily considered during his campaign last fall. He has been in office less than a year, when he has found it necessary to bitterly indict his own police department, upon the ground that it is corruptly permitting the running of the very institutions which upheld his candidacy and placed him in office. If the Paris of America is too much for McCarthy, what is it for the people of San Francisco who object to having their city made a Paris at all.

The mayor is probably discovering that the maintenance of a wide open town, even with the authorization of the head of the administration, is the source of endless corruption, and a mass of official intrigue which as the head of an administration he cannot approve. He is afraid even of itself, and while the city is permitting the maintenance of places of the character that San Francisco tolerates, the proprietors still find it advisable to "stand in" with the police, with consequent demoralization of the department. A much simpler way will be to quit this talk about the "Paris of America," and return to a policy of strict regulation, if not of suppression, of all business which cannot exist without bribery of the "cop on the beat."

RICKARD ARRESTED FOR KEEPING COW

San Francisco Prosecutor Gets Mixed in His Ordinances.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 15.—Tex Rickard of Texas, cattle country, was arrested tonight on a charge of unlawfully keeping a cow within the city limits.

It happened this way: Rickard has prize fight pictures which have been shown at a local theater. City ordinance No. 761 puts a ban on pictures of this sort and District Attorney Fickert decided to act against the fight promoter. A clerk in Fickert's office whose knowledge of the ordinance is as limited as it is of cows, proceeded to charge Rickard with the ordinance "an ordinance regulating the keeping of a cow within the city limits."

"Now, I live at the St. Francis hotel," said Rickard at the booking desk, "and I deny keeping a cow in my apartments."

COLLEGE GRADUATE IS 100 YEARS OLD

Lawyer of New Jersey Is Honored by His Alma Mater.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 19.—William Rankin of Summit, N. J., the oldest living college graduate in the United States, is today celebrating the 100th anniversary of his birth. His most highly valued birthday present is a letter of felicitation and congratulation from the president and faculty of Williams college, his alma mater.

Mr. Rankin was graudated from Williams seventy-nine years ago. He was born in Elizabeth on September 15, 1810, and is still in excellent health.

For thirty-seven years prior to 1888, Mr. Rankin was president of the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions. His profession is the law and he was for many years a prominent attorney in Cincinnati, later practicing in Newark.

SHUBERTS ARE TO USE THEOSOPHIST THEATER

COLLEGE OF MILLINERY.

Only Way in Which America Can Ever Establish Styles.

It is said that the National Association of Retail Milliners, which has been in session in Chicago this week, has decided to establish a college of millinery in which all branches of the milliner's art—and, should it not be added, philosophy—will be taught. Well, why not? They are teaching how to milliner, how to bake, and other bagatelles in the high schools and colleges. Why shouldn't the country move up a peg and establish a real college of millinery?

The expert milliner can't be picked off of every bush. She or he—for there are some asexual milliners—is, at the best, much more than an artist. She must understand the lineaments of beauty as traced in feathers and chiffon. But she must also understand how to make the most outlandish shapes appeal to the notions of the hour.

And she must be a thoughtful person, a true philosopher. Only a specially equipped college of millinery can give courses in the philosophy of milliner's tyranny, the study of the irrational, how to defend the trade from abrupt reactions—the reactions that make the style of a few years ago that of today, and so induce women to save their old hats and things—&c.

Just why we should leave all of these things to Paris does not appear. We are not Chinamen. We follow the fashions of the hour as quickly as any one. Why, then, should we not have a hand in making them? Why shouldn't we have as much to do with the fashions in hats and dress as with the fashions in other things—such as politics, business, and sport—in which we have proved so capably fickle and alert? The national genius demands a college of millinery, and it should be established worthwith.—New York Globe.

PARISIANS SMOKING PIPES.

Pipes are again in favor in Paris. The high taxes on tobacco have been their triumph. The pipe has invaded the fashionable world, and the reason for this is the increased price of cigars, cigarettes, and all high-grade tobacco. The sale of the ordinary smoking tobacco for pipes sold in 5-penny packages is daily increasing.

The dealers in pipes are naturally delighted. Three times more pipes are being sold than in any previous year. The man who goes to the seaside or the mountain resorts takes a pipe with him. The pipe enters into the preparations for the shooting season, and even the college students are good customers.—London Evening Standard.

SO DIGNIFIED.

Mrs. Henpeck—You, Charles, what's that noise down there?

Mr. Henpeck—I trust, my dear, that I may fall down the cellar stairs if I wish to.—From an Exchange.

REGULARS CONTROL PARTY IN WYOMING

Payne-Aldrich Tariff Bill and Ballinger Are Endorsed.

RAWLINS, Wyo., Sept. 15.—President Taft's administration, Secretary Ballinger's conduct in office and the Payne-Aldrich bill were endorsed by the state Republican convention in session here today. United States Senator Francis E. Warren was chairman of the convention.

The platform adopted endorses "President Taft and his cabinet" for their adherence to the spirit and letter of the law in the performance of their duties."

The President's attitude on conservation of natural resources is also commended specifically.

The Payne-Aldrich tariff law, the platform pronounces "the best ever placed on the statute books and a change is opposed until it be fairly tested."

National legislation encouraging the settlement and development of the states lands and resources is commended but the sovereignty of the people over the streams within the state is asserted.

Following the adoption of the platform a separate resolution expressing "confidence in the integrity of Secretary Ballinger and commending his efficiency in carrying out the letter of the law in the conduct of his office" was accepted.

Attorney General W. E. Mullen of Sheridan, Wyo., was nominated for governor.

HIGH TIDES DAMAGE LONG BEACH PROPERTY

LONG BEACH, Cal., Sept. 15.—High tides did considerable damage here tonight. Bulkheads protecting the promenade on the strand were pounded out by the breakers, and the wide cement walk for a long distance was washed away. The foundations of a new apartment house on the ocean front were undermined, and if the tide becomes higher, as it is likely to do, several residences probably will go into the sea.

One store located on the beach was mounted on wheels tonight and carted to safety. A section of the summer tent city is under water, and the roller coaster and other concessions have sustained more or less damage from the high waves.

POST-INTELLIGENCER NOW INDEPENDENT

SEATTLE, Sept. 15.—The Seattle Post-Intelligencer, for many years an unswerving Republican newspaper, will announce tomorrow that henceforth it will be an independent Republican newspaper, politics being treated only in so far as it concerns the moral, material, social and esthetic upbuilding of the city and state. "The Post-Intelligencer will not stand pat for a Republican candidate merely because he is a Republican," says the announcement.

DENEEN DEFEATS LORIMER MEN

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 15.—One of the bitterest battles in the political history of central Illinois today resulted in a victory for friends of Governor Deneen over the supporters of Senator Lorimer. R. M. Sullivan, the Lorimer representative in this senatorial district, was defeated for precinct committeeman in his own precinct and thus forced out of the organization by Chris Unger, Deneen candidate.

State Senator Logan Hay, Deneen candidate for renomination for the State Senate, was overwhelmingly renominated over former Alderman Lawrence Flinn.

Representative J. F. Morris, Democratic member of the Legislature who voted for Lorimer, was renominated.

AUGUST.

When the woodchuck sounds his note
On the breeze,
And the robins gayly gleat
Through the trees;
When the hammock idly sways
Full of happy fiancees
Singing gladsome tooralays
At their ease.

When the arbutus arbutes
In the dell,
And the farmer gathers fruits
For the jell;
When the sweetest notes there be
In all nature's minstrelsy
For the hired man is the Dinner bell.

When poor dad is at his toil
In the town,
While the mercury doth boil
Up and down,
And mamma with marcel'ed hair
In the cool, crisp mountain air
Dazzles all beholders there
With her gown.

When the truck horse bold and tart
Doth appear,
With a straw hat—like a flir'—
On his ear,
And we hear the merry honk
Like the echo of a conch
From the motor and the donk,
Loud and clear.

When the flutter of the fan
Of the sly
Little maiden with the tan
Greets the eye,
As she promises to wed
Tom and Jack and Bill and Ned,
George and Harry, Sam and Ted,
By and by.

When the 'skeeter 'gins to storm
On the beach,
And the candidate gets warm
In his speech,
And the world is just awhirl,
Full of fluff and yellow curl,
Sort of mixture of a girl
And a peach.

When the katydids dispute,
And the frog
Sounds his pessimistic hoot
In the bog;
When the lobster all aglow
Grabs the bather by the toe,
Who is he that doth not know
It is Aug.?

Vera Fitch

Vera Fitch, who tried to commit suicide by shooting herself because she was a literary failure, is reported as recovering rapidly. In a few days she will be able to leave the hospital. She will be taken to the police station and temporarily held on a charge of attempting to commit suicide. It is to be hoped for the general good of the girl that she will be detained at police headquarters without special favors being shown her for a long enough period to make her realize that there are worse conditions in life than that of being an unsuccessful author. The girl evidently needs a little sound experience with the rougher side of life to make her appreciate the blessings and joys which she has closed her eyes to in a stubborn effort to compel the unattainable to come within her reach.—Alameda Times-Star

McKenzie Report

The state senate, in repudiating Labor Commissioner McKenzie's report on labor conditions in California, which was nothing more or less than a brief in favor of Japanese immigration, performed a public service that was in every way commendable. The people of this state are opposed to letting down the bars to coolly labor of all kinds and the fact can not be too frequently or too strongly stated.—Salinas Index.

Remember the Maine Election!

Maine has gone Democratic. It has elected a Democratic governor, and out of a congressional delegation of four, the state has elected two and possibly three, Democrats, where formerly the delegation was solidly Republican. The Democrats may even have a majority in the state legislature, which would mean that Maine would elect a Democrat to the United States Senate to succeed Hale. Maine, the staunchest of all the Republican strongholds, electing a Democratic congressman and governor!

What does it mean? Does it mean that thousands of Republican voters in Maine have changed their politics? Does it mean that Maine has repudiated the principle of protection? Does it mean that Maine has turned its back on the party of Lincoln and Garfield and McKinley and Roosevelt? No, none of these things. It means that Maine has rebuked Cannonism, Aldrichism and Ballingerism. It means that Maine has become disgusted with the domination of the Republican party by the Special Interests and Privilege. It means that there having been no Insurgent organization in Maine, like the Lincoln-Roosevelt League of Republican Clubs in California, through which the independent Republican voters could work to free the party from bossism and corporation control, those voters went over temporarily to the Democratic party. It means a broken, defeated Republican party in Maine instead of a strengthened, reformed and triumphant Republican party as in California.

The result in Maine is not a Democratic victory or a defeat for the Republican party as defined by the platform of 1908. It is a defeat for Cannonism and Aldrichism. It is a protest against the disregard of the people's rights by "Privilege."—Stockton Record.

Wisconsin and La Follette

The standpatters were left standing in Wisconsin and the Democracy was sapped for the glory of La Follette. Battle Bob, as he is called by an Eastern agent of the plutocracy, is king. The Republican candidates are his candidates, both the men on the state ticket and the nominees for Congress. The last standpat congressman has been disposed of and a La Follette insurgent is to run in his stead.

In 1892 Wisconsin gave Cleveland a plurality of 6544 over Harrison on the tariff issue. In 1896 it gave McKinley a plurality of 102,612 over Bryan on the silver issue. Its radicalism was not pronounced enough to take in the Chicago platform. In 1900 it gave a still larger plurality against Bryan, who is today one of La Follette's most ardent admirers, though he makes the necessary qualifications on party grounds.

At the next election Bryan was not in the race. The safe and sane Parker ran against the progressive Roosevelt. But this did not help the Democratic partyLa Follette, pioneer Republican radical, was already a power in the state and Roosevelt was the most popular man in the country. Parker fared worse than Bryan, the plurality against him being 158,554. And when Bryan ran again in 1908 Taft's plurality over him was but 81,000.

Wisconsin would not accept Bryan's Chicago platform because it is very thoroughly committed to the gold standard, but a La Follette Republican might think that the phraseology of this plank was rather mild:

"The absorption of wealth by the few, the consolidation of our leading railroad systems, and the formation of trusts and pools require a stricter control by the federal government of those arteries of commerce. We demand the enlargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission, and such restrictions and guaranties in the control of railroads as will protect the people from robbery and oppression."

There is the announcement of a policy upon which La Follette has thriven after giving and receiving many hard knocks. His sensational victory proves that he has the state with him now by a smashing majority. It is the center of Republican insurgency, the old machine is completely shattered, the radical Democrats can find a comfortable home in the La Follette camp.

Wisconsin has had a strange, eventful history since 1896.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Johnson's Campaign

Hiram Johnson has announced that beginning September 20th, he will devote his whole time to the campaign for the governorship. If one may judge from the united spirit in which his nomination has been received, and from the sentiment that is sweeping the country from one end to the other, there would seem to be little call for a strenuous fight. Johnson's election is so certain that it is impossible to imagine an element of doubt as to the outcome. But, being the party nominee, he intends to do his full duty. He will give the voters throughout the state another opportunity to judge their candidate at first hand.

He also reiterates, in his latest announcement, his policy, which he says is two fold:

"First, it will be upon the Roosevelt policies and progressive Republicanism, involving not only the issue of protection to our industries, but protection to the plain people.

"The one great principle upon which the state contest will be made will be the driving out of Herrin and the Southern Pacific from California's government."

In an earlier speech he made this statement:

"Am I a regular Republican? If by a 'regular Republican' you mean one who takes orders from the political bureau of the Southern Pacific Company, my answer is NO! and a thousand times NO!

"But, nevertheless, as I stated in my letter to the Republican state committee, I am a Republican, and will continue to be a Republican, striving to stand for the highest and best in our political life.'

"What more has any man a right to ask of me?"

That should be, and is, quite sufficient. It is a platform upon which all loyal Republicans can stand.—Santa Barbara Press.

A.D.S. PEROXIDE CREAM

For those particular people who desire a beautiful complexion and who want to keep the skin at its best all the time—keep it clear, flexible, smooth and give it the glow of health—there is nothing as good as A. D. S. Peroxide Cream, because it contains a small quantity of Hydrogen Peroxide, the great antiseptic healing and cleansing agent.

Its action upon a red, blotched, pimply, scaly, unsightly skin is very pronounced.

When used as a massage it has a tendency to eradicate wrinkles and to nourish the tissues. It is a mild bleach—perfectly harmless and will not grow hair.

This is one of the leading preparations made by the American Druggists Syndicate, which is composed of 12,000 responsible druggists, and it is but one of the famous A. D. S. Peroxide Family.

The others—equally as good, equally as beneficial and just as popular—are A. D. S. Peroxide Tooth Powder, which whitens, cleanses and preserves the teeth; A. D. S. Peroxide Tooth Paste for the same purpose, put up in a different form; A. D. S. Peroxide Soap, a very superior soap because it heals as well as cleanses; A. D. S. Peroxide Foot Powder, for tired, aching, burning feet, and last, but by no means of least importance, is A. D. S. Peroxide of Hydrogen, the great disinfectant and germicide now being used in so many homes.

All of these A. D. S. preparations can be obtained at any A. D. S. drug store.

WEATHER CONDITIONS

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Forecast: San Joaquin valley: Unsettled Friday. light north winds. Advisable to keep trays stacked a little longer.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

There has been but little change in the distribution of barometric pressure on the Pacific coast during the last 24 hours, although it is generally lower except on the coast of Southern California where it has remained about stationary. The rain has been confined principally to interior portions of the state where it has been general and heavy. No rain has fallen on any part of the immediate coast since the beginning of the storm except the middle portions. The total rainfall at Fresno up to 5 p. m. today is one inch, being the heaviest for any season to this date during the last 23 years.

The low barometric pressure that covers all parts of the coast indicates continued unsettled and probably showery weather tonight and Friday. No settled weather may be looked for until after Friday.

BANK CASHIER'S SON IS SAVED FROM GOING TO SAN QUENTIN

He's Given Release on Parole After Acknowledging Forgery.

Coalinga Case Goes at Last to Judgment; Inheritance Tax Due.

W. B. Baker, Jr., son of a bank cashier and former university man, pleading guilty to the forgery in May last of a time check on the Santa Fe in the name of Lee Miller, was discharged from custody yesterday and liberated on parole by Judge Church upon condition that he report monthly to the sheriff as the probationary officer.

J. L. Hollman who is jointly charged with him will appear in court today and very likely the same action will be had in his case. According to the showing made on the paroling of Baker, he was in charge of a gang of Santa Fe laborers and Miller not calling for his time check Baker cashed it with Hollman, who was the cashier. The time check called for $30.50 and Hollman to whom Baker explained the transaction withheld $5 for his recompense.

Baker further pleaded in court that he held himself responsible for the face value of the check, intending to refund it on the following pay day and if Miller ever came to make collection he would have paid him the money.

In mitigation it was represented that at no time since arrest had the accused concealed any of the details of the transaction nor had he tried to shift any of the responsibility upon his companion, to his advantage. Attorney Lewis H. Smith appeared in behalf of the young prisoner to show that he has excellent family connections and that his father is cashier of the National bank at Saxboro, Mass.

It was through business correspondence with Cashier Dan Brown here and Secretary John Fechter of the Y. M. C. A. that the effort to save young Baker from the penitentiary was made. Attorney Smith read in court a telegram received only yesterday morning from the father in the East imploring him to do all in his power to save the son from a convict's cell and stating that his mother is seriously ill and that all knowledge of his arrest and trouble had been withheld from her. It was also stated that young Baker is a college bred man, a former student in the University of Wisconsin.

The plea for release on parole had its effect and Judge Church suspended the sentence of four years' incarceration in the penitentiary.

GONE TO JUDGMENT

An end for the present at least was reached yesterday in the long and tenaciously fought case from Coalinga of John Dowdell against John L. Shoo and wife Josephine J. Shoo, and brother-in-law, L. F. Herrick, by the filing of findings and the record of judgment being made up.

That judgment is for the plaintiff on every issue and is to order a full accounting to be had of the respective interests in a partnership entered into in July, 1909, in a billiard and pool room and saloon and cigar business in the oil town, Dowdell furnishing the business experience and Shoo the finances. The partnership now followed upon the exclusion of Dowdell from participation in the business in February, 1910.

The partnership acquired valuable real property which stands in the name of Shoo and which the decision holds to be a partnership asset. According to the judgment the plaintiff is restored to his status as a full partner. The trial of the case excited interest for the extraordinary money receipts and investments of the business as shown on the trial and the frequent ousting and restitution in possession under orders of the court by the sheriff of one or the other litigant.

From a money standpoint $40,000 to $50,000 was involved in the case and about one-half of that as the original investment was brought in by Shoo by mortgaging property in Oakland. C. K. Ponsetell was Dowdell's attorney in the tenaciously fought case.

INHERITANCE TAX

Printer Fred W. Littlefield as the son and only heir of the late Samuel Littlefield is ordered by Judge Austin on the report of Appraiser Eugene Rahill to pay $120.59 as collateral inheritance tax, less 5 per cent discount if paid within six months after the death of the deceased. The market value of the estate is returned at $19,534, debts and administration expenses $1474.20 and the heir entitled to an exemption of $1000. One per cent tax is computed on a net estate value of $12,059.80.

TWO PICKPOCKETS LANDED BY POLICE

Frank King and Jack Bellows Try to Touch Japanese and Are Taken Into Custody.

The members of the local police department kept a sharp lookout all day yesterday for pickpockets who usually follow in the wake of the circus parade. Yesterday was no exception and five of the light-touch artists were discovered in a crowd at J and Tulare streets by Constable McSwain. Two of the men were trying to get into the pockets of a Jap who was hanging onto one of the crowded circus cars.

When McSwain approached the pair ran along the street. McSwain gave chase and captured the men who gave their names as Frank King and Jack Bellows. King said his home was in Chicago, while Bellows said he came from Hanford. Before the circus arrived yesterday morning, the police received word that about a hundred pickpockets were following the circus. This is an unusually large number and the police took extra precautions to apprehend the smooth artists. However, only five were seen in action. Three of these escaped.

CIRCUS IS "DIFFERENT" AND GETS OUT LARGE AUDIENCES HERE

Barnum and Bailey's Show Has Unusual Stamp of Originality.

Crowd Takes to "Thrillers" and Likes the Races at the Close.

Unfeazed by the early prospects of rain, a record-breaking crowd turned out yesterday to the two performances here of Barnum & Bailey's circus. One usually allows a whole lot for the raptures of the press agent of a circus but this aggregation was the best yet of its kind seen in Fresno, and one has to "hand it" to the advance man who said everything about the performance was new and unhackneyed. There was hardly an act that did not have on it the stamp of something "different," from the "thrillers" down to the most straightaway acrobatic work.

Of course, everyone went there expecting to be thrilled. There is not anywhere a better advertised feat than Desperado's leap from the top of the big tent to an inclined plane. But for all the preparedness, there was a feeling of tenseness and anticipation preceding the leap that was pleasurable. Desperado stood on a tiny platform away up under the canvas of the "big top," while the ringmaster called dramatically: "Are you ready, Desperado?" Answering "yes," the man leaped from his platform—not a mere fall, but a leap out into the air, with body curving, then growing tense, as it struck the inclined plane, chest first. The crowd breathed a sigh when he shot off the end of the plane and landed on his feet, smiling.

The other feature act, Jupiter, the horse that "balloons" to the top of the tent and stands in a blaze of fireworks on a small platform, made its hit, but the crowd seemed to feel, as it is said the circus people themselves feel, that Desperado's act is unapproachable, involving a fearful element of danger, and requiring a lot of very real skill.

EVERYTHING SUPERIOR.

Quite everything about the show was superior, and free from a tawdriness that shabbiness lends to so much about the ordinary circus on the road. The crowd remarked that the costumes looked fresh and new in the grand entry, that the costumes throughout were superior, fresh and handsome. Everyone noticed that the trained elephants were about the best ever seen in Fresno; that the horses were unusually fine, that the menagerie was splendid. The herd of giraffes alone would have made this worth seeing. These long-necked brutes are remarkably hard to keep well and thriving in captivity. They are always getting hurt or contracting croup in their ten feet of neck. Baby lions kept the children interested. A hippo and a rhino added features which are carried only by the biggest menageries.

A feature of the acrobatic and tumbling work was that not an act was without a novel side, something to distinguish it from work of the same sort which one has seen time and time again. Among the large number of acrialists, contortionists, tumblers and balancers were a few stars that shone with the first brilliancy.

GIRL A MARVEL.

Balanced on a slender wife, an attractive young woman, advertised in the program as "La Belle Victoria, Premier Alhambrista Mexicana," presented an act that, second to Desperado's, seemed the real thriller of the day. She avoided all the ordinary tricks, keeping her poise apparently without an effort, laughing and talking with her helpers all the time. After doing the difficult swaying trick on the tight wire, she continued to sway in widening arcs as the wire was slacked away, until she was executing a tremendous swing, clear across the ring. It is a thing that has been done in a modified form for years past, but for grace and surety of execution, and for daring, the Mexicana seems peerless.

This was only one of a dozen feats quite out of the ordinary, which were going on all at once in the three rings and on two stages.

CHIMPANZEE A HIT.

An innovation in the way of bareback riding by sea lions was introduced. There was so much worth while in the trained animal department that it is difficult to single out any feature for comment. However, Charles the First, a trained chimpanzee, stood out as a creature possessing apparently human reason. He ate with his trainer, smoked with him, undressed, and cried about going to bed, and rode his bicycle about various objects on the stage, pulling off stunts apparently without undue prompting, that would have done credit to a human bicyclist. An impromptu feature of this act was furnished when he accidentaly dropped the cigarette he was smoking. He reached down, picked it up, stuck it in his mouth with the mannerisms of a practical smoker, and then gave his trainer a light.

The closing aerial acts were chiefly remarkable through the number of gymnasts in the air at once. Twenty-two of them were all doing the flying trapeze business at once. Two women members of the Imperial Viennese Trope of eleven people drew applause by some hand-over-hand rope-climbing that would have taxed the huskiest jack tar that ever gave a heave on a weather sheet.

The races of the finale were more closely contested than usual—so much so that the crowd was soon yelling, and warmed up more than at any time during the performance.

NEW CLOWN STUNTS

The clowns were there in profusion, with the usual crop of new tricks. Chanticleer costumes were sprung, and the bobble skirt, jay riders, and an aeroplanist. The big clown feature acts were both very good burlesque. Phil "Denver" Darling putting on a prize fight "en solitaire," and Harry Lapearl put on a very good parody dancing act.

The after-show was of some merit, which was another novel feature of the performance. The band was particularly good.

The parade of the morning was probably responsible for some of the large crowd drawn to the show. It was much above the ordinary. Over 200 horses were counted in the procession, and a number of handsome and very expensive floats were sprung.

On the whole, the show, which is the largest on the road, quite lived up to itself.

ARRESTED AS SPIES.

EMDEN, Germany, Sept. 15.—Several Germans have been arrested in connection with the alleged spying of Englishmen. Brandon and Trench, in the island of Borkum. They are charged with assisting Brandon and Trench in photographing the fortifications. The alleged British spies were arrested August 22nd and 23rd.

"THE LOTTERY MAN" AND "SEVEN DAYS," BOTH BIG LAUGHING HITS, TO BE SEEN AT THE BARTON OPERA HOUSE FIRST OF WEEK

Scene from "The Lottery Man," at the Barton Sunday night.

After one has seen "The Lottery Man" it can easily be understood why the stage is running to comedies. The Messrs. Shubert produced this comedy early last fall, brought it to New York after a brief road tour and it remained on Broadway, at Bijou theater, for the entire season. The comedy, which is by Rida Johnson Young, will be seen for the first time in this city at the Barton opera house next Sunday evening, September 18th.

The principal figure in the play is a newspaper reporter, Jack Wright. He is hard pressed for immediate cash and appeals to his chief, Foxey Peyton, owner of the paper, to help him out. Peyton makes an advance and Wright loses all of it on the stock market. As security he has pledged to turn in to Peyton one of the biggest "scoops" the paper has ever known. So Wright proceeds to "make good." He announces a lottery with himself as the prize.

"But," says the cautious newspaper owner, "a lottery is against the law." "The law says," explains Wright, "that you cannot give away a capital prize. In our case the prize will give itself away."

The first day the paper makes the announcement, thousands of old maids rush the office. Wright is eager to proceed with the scheme, as money is literally rolling in. Meantime he falls in love with Helene Heyer and the agony he suffers—when, as he explains, the first woman he meets on the street may claim him as her husband—may be imagined. The plot is entirely original and is worked out in Mrs. Young's most entertaining style. The New York papers fairly raved over the bright situations. The fact that the comedy remained in New York for so long a time is one of its best recommendations. The cast includes William Rosell, Vivian Ogden, Florence Robertson, May Donahue and others.

"SEVEN DAYS"

Here's a sure thing tip. Get somebody who has never been known to laugh and bet that you can make him—or her—laugh for two hours and forty-five minutes straight. Then take him—or her—to see "Seven Days" at the Barton opera house on next Monday and Tuesday. Give as big odds as you like on this bet. You'll win. The man or woman doesn't exist who can sit through "Seven Days" straight faced. It's beyond human possibility. Here is a comedy that is guaranteed to produce the laughing habit. Imagine some of New York's smart set assembled at a house for a dinner party and then quarantined for a week, with not a servant in the place. That's a hint of the play that has "knocked the town silly," as Charles Darnton, dramatic critic of the New York Evening World, expressed it. "The piece is so uproariously funny," wrote Mr. Darnton, "that it scored the laughing hit of the year. It swept the house with gales of laughter and there was no resisting its cyclonic rush." That cyclone of laughter started the night "Seven Days" was produced at the Astor theater in New York, and it increased in violence during the run of the play, which has extended into a second year. It burst forth, too, in Chicago and didn't let up for six months, the time the comedy ran there. "Seven Days" is the only comedy with a record of two years and a summer run on Broadway. That in itself is a recommendation that ought to convince everybody of its kind and quality. Managers Wagenhals & Kemper, producers of "Seven Days," are famous for giving the public good plays and staging them most elaborately. A New York cast and production will be seen here next week, Monday and Tuesday, September 19-20.

POLLARD OPERA CO.

When the National-Pollard Opera Company produces "The Mikado" at the Barton opera house next week, Wednesday, September 21st, there will be no vacant seats. The conjunction of these two popular organizations assures all lovers of comic opera that they are going to see something worth while when Gilbert & Sullivan's famous comic opera is presented; but when such a clever organization as the one advertised is brought together nothing but a performance far beyond the ordinary is to be looked forward to. The principals are recruited from the famous Pollard Lilliputian Opera Company, now grown up to man and womanhood. Eva Pollard is the Yum-Yum of "The Mikado," Alf, the Lord High Executioner, Ko-Ko, and Jack Pollard, the Mikado. Mr. Will Lafian is the Nanki-Poo, and those who remember his splendid tenor voice with the National Opera Company, will want to hear him as the wandering minstrel.

ALGEBRA "PONIES" PUT SCHOOL AUTHORITIES IN QUANDARY

City Flooded With Tabooed Edition Having Answers to Problems.

Lazy High School Students Elated; Digs Annoyed; Liddeke Speaks.

Who is responsible for the mathematical "ponies" with which the city book stores abound just now is a question that is bothering the High school authorities. A more critical question still is presented in the delicate problem of getting rid of the troublesome books without going to expense of changing the book and forcing the students in the High school to purchase a new book.

When the board of education adopted one of Wells' algebras for use in the High school, it specified that the books used should be the edition without the answers. The publishing company, it is said, was notified of this decision and the book stores as well.

To the unbounded joy of the lazy student, but to the disgust of the "digs" and the school authorities, three of four book stores here have only the edition with answers. Many of the students purchased the books without question and with the naive enthusiasm of the High school "freshie" promptly decorated the volume with their names, class numerals, and other personal information selected for that informal bulletin board, as found in the average student's belongings.

Things are at a deadlock just now. The school authorities say the books must not be used. The students do not want to go to the expense of purchasing new supplies, and the book stores are saying that they ordered the edition without the answers to the problems in the back of the book, but that they were dimfammed by either the jobber or the publishing company.

"PONIES" BAD.

"Having the answers in the book demoralizes the student's work," remarked Principal Frederick Liddeke last night. "The fact that they are there leads to lead the student to work for answers rather than the mastery of the process. Many times the answers especially in the more advanced mathematic books, are wrong and of course then they are worse than useless.

"It seems to me that the publishing company should take back the books even if the names of the students are written in them. R was notified that the board of education wanted the books without the answers and should have taken pains to see that only that edition was sent to Fresno."

PARENTS ORDERED TO CLEAN HOUSE

Dr. Long Describes Conditions in Johnson Home as Worst He Had Seen.

Frank Johnson and his wife appeared before Judge Graham yesterday, to answer to a complaint filed on behalf of the Fresno County Humane Society, charging him and his wife with having neglected their children to such an extent that their lives were endangered.

The prosecution was represented by William Harvey, Sr.

Dr. Long was the first witness and he described how he, Mr. Bettridge and Mr. Harvey had visited the house on Saturday last and found the children dirty, neglected and the house in a filthy condition, the hair of the children was all matted from neglect. The conditions generally would tend to endanger the lives of the children, he said, and summed his evidence up that the condition was indescribable and the most filthy he had ever seen.

At the conclusion of Dr. Long's evidence, Judge Graham said he did not wish any more evidence, that he was satisfied. He released the defendants and told them to appear again in 30 days, in the meantime to clean up the house and keep it thoroughly clean. No sentence was passed.

SINCLAIR WON'T TALK ON REPORTED AGENCY SALE PENDING

Refuses to Say If He Is Negotiating Now With Associated.

No Lakeview Oil Has Yet Been Run Through Producers' Line.

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 15.—Although he has affirmed the report that he has been given full authority to sell Agency oil and make contracts, President L. P. Sinclair refuses to discuss the report that the Agency is negotiating with the Associated for the sale of a large amount of oil.

Officers of the Producers' Transportation Company say no Lakeview oil has yet been run through that company's lines. It is likely, however, that action will be taken in the matter within a few days because of the early rains.

The Regal gusher, brought in several weeks ago, is gradually getting better and at present is said to be doing 1200 daily, with bright prospects.

One of the most important recent strikes on the Sunset front was made three miles out this week by the Western Minerals Company on section 22-11-23. The well on the pump produces about 100 barrels daily of 16 gravity oil from a depth of 1340 feet. The first oil struck was fine lubricant and was used crude as engine oil. More wells are being put down.

Nothing but a DIAMOND will do when you want an ENGAGEMENT RING. The time has come by when any part of a set ring was correct for an engagement ring. Now nothing but a diamond will do and a pure white, perfect stone at that. The emblem of your love must be as pure, as spotless and as perfect as you would have that love to be. GRAHAM IS ORGANIZING ANOTHER COMBINE OF OIL PRODUCERS

Meeting Held of Men Who Are in Favor of Conservation.

But Recently Lost Control of Policies of Western Producers.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—S. C. Graham yesterday took steps to form another oil producers' association. Ten or twelve oil men, some of whom are prominent, met in Graham's office in the Security building from 3 till 4:30 o'clock, but just what was accomplished was not given out. The discussion was private, and Mr. Graham said after adjournment that he thought it best not to make public even the names of the oil men present at this time.

Of one thing there is no doubt—all the men at the meeting believe that the California oil lands should be conserved for future generations. A tentative plan of organization and policy was submitted and at another meeting to be held in a few days it will probably be adopted. It is scarcely necessary to state that this plan will follow the suggestions made by Mr. Graham.

About six weeks ago Mr. Graham and several other oil men, probably the ones who met at his office yesterday, held a meeting in Graham's office and issued a call for a meeting of California oil producers. As a result of that call the Western Oil Producers' Association was launched. At the last meeting, however, when the votes were canvassed for directors, it was found that the entire eleven held views in opposition to those voiced by Mr. Graham, he publicly announced his withdrawal from the association. It begins to look now as if his action would be followed by the withdrawal from the western association of all the others who hold similar views on the conservation question.

At any rate, it is now apparent that S. C. Graham is bound to have an organization of oil men in California that will sit up and take notice when Gifford Pinchot comes to town.

CONSOLIDATED GRANTED INJUNCTION AGAINST CONVERSE SEEDER

Giffen and California Seeded Must Give Bond to Use Machine.

Injunction Temporary; Giffen Says Fight Will Now Be Made.

Judge Wellborn of the Federal court in Los Angeles yesterday granted to the United States Consolidated Seeded Raisin company, owner of the Petit raisin seeder patent, a preliminary injunction against the use of the Converse seeding machine by L. F. Giffen of this city, now doing business in the firm of the Giffen-Hobbe companies, raisin packers and by the California Seeded Raisin company, which was associated in the deal with Converse, the inventor, and from which Giffen secured his rights for the use of the machine. The defendants, however, are permitted to use the machine pending further court procedure under a bond of $7500 in the former and $2000 in the latter.

This injunction was applied for about a year ago, but has just now come to hearing. The step is the first in an effort to prevent the use of the Converse seeder by Giffen, who is outside the "Raisin Trust," as the Consolidated is sometimes called.

Giffen stated last night that the necessary bond would be forthcoming, and the case will be fought in the courts.

The injunction was obtained on the grounds of infringement of the Petit patent. The basis of the claim of infringement lies in the use of a seeder roll in the Converse machine, claimed to be an essential principle of the Petit device.

The step is one that has been pending for a long time, and did not came as much of a surprise to the people interested here.

GEOLOGIST WRITES UPON THE WATER PROBLEM AT COALINGA

Shows Advantage of Keeping Official Logs of All Drilling Wells.

Coalinga Field Most to Be Benefited by Such Accurate Records.

R. P. McLaughlin, a geologist experienced in the Coalinga field, writes the following of the water problem there, the article appearing in the Mining and Scientific Press:

Within the past few months considerable publicity has been given to the troubles experienced from water in the oil wells of the Coalinga, California, oil field. A definite statement of conditions and causes of the publicity will doubtless clear up some misconceptions. The last Legislature passed a law authorizing the appointment of oil well commissioners by the supervisors of various counties. The duty of the comissioner is to investigate the cause of trouble in wells that are flowing a high percentage of water and damaging surrounding properties, and to correct such errors if possible. Such a law is very easily written upon the statutes but the difficulties of enforcement are twofold. First the owners of the offending well may be indifferent to the damage being done or financially unable to correct it, and second, the problem may be extremely difficult to solve owing to unexpected conditions underground.

In Fresno county the salary of the oil well commissioner is paid entirely from the county funds and amounts to $100 per month. As the rate of pay of skilled laborers in these oil fields is in the neighborhood of $175 or $200 it can be seen that the commissioner has an individual problem in domestic economy, especially if he attempts the necessary traveling in discharge of his duties. In view of the above mentioned difficulties the results obtained have not been great. The present commissioner, R. Baker, has done as much as was possible and the board of supervisors has shown a willingness to give more help to the oil producers if some practicable scheme were presented and supported by them.

PLAN CO-OPERATION.

Several months ago the commissioner called a meeting of those interested and after considerable discussion a committee of eleven was appointed to draw up a plan of co-operation. A scheme was presented for the formation of an association of all the operators through which such information as is necessary could be collected. An office was to be maintained in the town of Coalinga, a geologist employed with such assistants as he should need, and power delegated to the executive committee of the association to enforce remedial measures. The proposed articles of agreement were submitted to the officers of every company in the field, with requests for suggestions as to improvement, acceptance, or rejection. Practically no objection to the scheme developed though there were some suggestions as to alteration of details. The number of replies was so small, however, that the organization was not assured. Steps have since been taken to obtain direct answers from the companies through their various resident superintendents. The matter is in the peculiar condition of having met no opposition and being generally approved by most of the people aware of the conditions, and still the committee lacks power to proceed. It has become evident that corporations are loath to delegate power to any committee to dictate as to the conduct of operations at any well. Considerable doubt as to the power under the present law to really accomplish anything is also manifest. Most, although not all of the operators, concede the advisability of having data collected and presented in the form of cross-sectional drawings of the logs of wells.

The total estimated cost of the scheme would be equivalent to a charge of about one mill per barrel of oil produced. The plan provides for a geologist who would watch the drilling of all new wells and thereby be able to correlate the logs. The sum estimated would permit employment of competent and experienced men for this work. At present the logs are kept by different individuals without attempt to strictly classify the formations passed through and are frequently of no value aside from showing the depth at which oil is found. Water is rarely mentioned in the written logs though it is a most important item. The upper portion of the logs has been considered of little value and such strikingly characteristic beds as gravel or large fossils are seldom recorded. These would, if systematically recorded, afford enough data to almost exactly tie neighboring logs together and give a basis for predictions during the drilling of any well. Many logs are recorded merely from what can be observed by the driller within the derrick. This should be supplemented by careful scrutiny of all the drillings dumped. Some of the larger companies, especially the K. T. & O. (Southern Pacific Company), follow such a scheme as outlined and thus have accurate records of all work that may be readily shown by drawings.

FIELD IDEAL.

The Coalinga field is probably one of the most simple in structure and regularity of beds, and more good could thus be accomplished by co-operation here than at many other places. Water conditions are far from being hopelessly bad and the field has not shown any evidence of general encroachment of water. Water is frequently carried in a bed above or below an oil-sand and unless carefully handled and cemented off leaks into the oil sand. In some cases enough water is found to entirely smother or hold back the oil, while in others only a small percentage comes in with the oil and settles out in the sump-holes. One company is pumping oil with water in such fine globules that it will not naturally settle and requires electric treatment. There have been about 1050 wells drilled in the field, about thirty show water in amounts greater than 25 per cent, while about 50 wells have been abandoned. Not all of the abandoned wells are chargeable to water troubles, but probably a majority are and as the cost of drilling a well will average about $20,000, it will be readily seen that lack of system has already cost a considerable amount. As is usual in any new departure the value of technical work is looked upon with considerable skepticism by those who have heretofore obtained creditable results from "rule of thumb" methods. However, the subject is in the way to be given thorough consideration and perhaps a fair test.

NEW YORK CURB INSISTS THERE'S GUSHER IN DEVIL'S DEN

Makes Claim Consolidated Hole Did 2000 a Day; Is Denied Here.

Ignorance of Conditions Displayed in Article on Gusher Yarn.

The New York Curb, a paper devoted to stocks listed on the curb in Gotham, resents in a lengthy article in the current issue, stories published on this Coast roasting a former assertion of the paper that a gusher was secured by the Devil's Den Consolidated people in the Devil's Den district. The article is devoted largely to a proof that such a gusher was secured—a thing that has never been heard of and is declared to be absolutely false by the best posted oil men in the business.

The article is in regard to claims of the Mephisto Oil Company, which is operating near the Consolidated. This company advertised that it was putting down a hole "near the gusher of the Devil's Den Consolidated."

The absolute facts are that until about ten days ago, there had been brought in no well within twenty-five miles of the Mephisto or the Consolidated worth over twenty-five barrels a day. There is now a report abroad that a company in the Devil's Den has got a well that shows 500 barrels on the pump, but no well in this vicinity has ever flowed over the casing. The companies operating there are not on a commercial paying basis. The absolutely proven districts are twenty-five to thirty miles distant, north and south.

The article begins by saying:

"This paper's recent account of the Mephisto Oil Company's operations in the Devil's Den district, in which it was stated that the company was sinking a well within 150 feet of the well of the Devil's Den Consolidated Company, which had flowed at the rate of 2,000 barrels, has been questioned by a Western oil paper.

"Before going into details, we want to say that upon investigation, we find that the owners of the paper in question are largely interested in oil lands and oil companies in the Midway field around McKittredge and Coalinga, and yet have obtained no footing in the Devil's Den district."

After giving this exhibition of ignorance of the geography of the oil districts, the paper goes on to quote a local statement that the Consolidated got a showing of shale oil, commenting "this statement is true:"

It is. Shale oil may mean something or nothing in this valley. In Ventura county, some flowing wells have been got in the shale, but not a single case of this sort is on record in the San Joaquin Valley districts.

The article goes on to state that the Consolidated put in stove pipe casing, "and the force of the oil blew out the casing and the well collapsed." Elsewhere in the same paper, the statement is made that the Consolidated came in as a gusher at 1,495 feet. If stove pipe casing was used to this depth, it is a very unusual fact, as this sort of stuff is rarely carried as deep as 600 feet.

But the point made about the whole thing is the claim that a gusher was ever got in the Devil's Den. If this had been the case, the country thereabouts would have been dotted overnight with rigs. No one has seen enough of a showing about Devil's Den yet to start a panic.

The district is in the oil limits shown by the United States geological survey, and it has been believed for a long while that oil would in time be found there. But to place it as now among the districts that have been proven by the bringing in of a big gusher, is erroneous.

It is also erroneous to suppose that any one interested in the Midway, even if it is not near either Coalinga or McKittrick, would feel disgruntled at having no footing in wildcat territory like Devil's Den.

FINISH PLANS FOR MINING CONGRESS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—James F. Calbreath, secretary of the American Mining Congress, will arrive from Denver today, and the detailed program of the convention to be held in this city from September 26th to October 1st, inclusive, will be announced.

Dr. E. R. Buckley, president of the congress, will reach the city Sunday or Monday, and D. W. Brunton, vice president, is already here. There is every indication of an unusual attendance, and the discussions will be of nation-wide interest. The Sierra Madre Club officials have been untiring in their efforts on behalf of the congress.

EMPOWER EXECUTOR TO LOOK FOR OIL

On last Friday in Judge Coffey's court in San Francisco an order was made granting W. Ladd, as executor of the estate of the late Benjamin Healey, deceased, authority to enter into a contract of lease with M. P. Callahan, who represents several parties with capital, to prospect for oil in section 30-21-19, containing 639.21 acres of land, also section 18-20-19, containing 638.84 acres of land, also the north half and fractional southeast quarter of section 20-21-19, containing 473 acres of land, all in Kings county.

The property consits of over 1700 acres and is situated about eighteen miles from Coalinga. Derricks are now erected wthin sight of the Healey land and the lessees of the property are confident that it will only be a short time before oil will be found on the land. Work will commence at once. Under the terms of the lease, two years are allowed for prospecting purposes, before which time the lessees expect to have returns from the venture.

HIGH SCHOOL CLASS SCHEDULES MADE OUT

Number of Students About 520, Say Authorities; Shops Delayed.

The last of the class schedules for the regular courses of the high school have been made out, and the students are now down to serious work, with the exception of those taking up manual training. The new shops just back of the regular high school building are ready for the equipment, but it will take probably nearly a week to have everything ready. This is the first year the high school students will be able to study manual training on the same premises as their other classes.

This term the high school girls taking up domestic science will take that course in the Washington grammar school, a few blocks down on Fresno street. With the completion of the new additions they next term will take this course in a model flat in the high school building.

REGISTRY NOT COMPLETE.

A roster taken yesterday morning in the first period showed there were 499 students in the various rooms. Mr. Liddeke, principal of the school, remarked that the full registration is believed to be in the neighborhood of 520 or 525. Owing to a misunderstanding some of the students followed the custom of previous years and took home their registration cards for the signatures of their parents. The regulations this year provide simply for the filling of the proper data by the student without further signatures. Many of the cards taken home have not been returned as yet, it is believed by the school authorities.

SLOW DOWN SIGNS

Street Superintendent Thorn has decided to put up warning signs for chauffeurs, motorcyclists and drivers of vehicles in the following districts:

"Slown down to eight miles" on streets bounded by F on southwest, and L on northeast, Tuolumne on northwest and Mono on southeast.

"Slow down to sixteen miles" at all intersections of paved streets.

"Slow down to a walk" on all street and alley intersections.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—The Traffics association of St. Louis Coffee Importers was organized here yesterday to obtain an adjustment of freight rates to and from St. Louis. The present rates are declared to favor Chicago and New York as distributing points.

The following officers were elected: Robert Meyer, president; H. L. Holmeyer, vice president; J. S. Hartman, secretary; G. H. Petring, treasurer; J. E. Williams, traffic manager.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The principal factor at work in the stock market today was the reversal of speculative operations for the advance attempted earlier in the week and which have not met with encouraging response by attracting any substantial demand from outside sources.

The whole market finally closed weak. No considerable revival in the steel trade is looked for until the railroads come into the market as free buyers. Force was given to this view by the published expressions of President McCrea of the Pennsylvania on his return from abroad.

Further consideration of the apparent deadlock caused by the rejection of the railroad validation for cotton bills of lading by the foreign bankers suggested possible complications calculated to affect the money market. It is likely that the first effect will be to hasten cotton shipments before the date of the foreign bankers' decision taking effect, which is October 31.

The bulge in the cotton market did not disturb the feeling of confidence in the favorable progress of the market. Stocks were unaffected by this condition.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,112,000. United States 4s registered declined ¼ per cent on call.

WEALTHY WOMAN STRANGER IS HELD ON INSANITY CHARGE

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 15.—Held on a charge of insanity, a richly dressed and apparently wealthy woman, who gives her name as Mrs. Nina Fabian, is puzzling the authorities of San Diego because of the fact that they are unable to learn where she came from or where her home is. With her at the time of her arrest in one of the fashionable hotels in this city was a 7-year-old adopted daughter. Mrs. Fabian was arraigned in court yesterday afternoon on an insanity charge, but her answers to questions were so incoherent that nothing tangible could be learned. She showed a telegram from Sacramento signed "H. G. Faublon," and exhibited a letter written to her on stationery of a Los Angeles hotel. She will have a hearing in court Saturday.

SAYS KING GEORGE IS GOOD SPEAKER

English Newspaper Man Writes of Monarch in French Review.

PARIS, Sept. 15.—The Revue de Paris prints an interesting personal study of George V, by Joseph Watson, an English newspaper writer, who accompanied the king when, as Prince of Wales, he made his colonial and Indian tours. The writer gives a high estimate of the new king's character and ability and recounts many anecdotes to show his broad-minded good sense and painstaking, careful habits, amounting almost to genius.

In one of the colonial visits, a sensational paper enlivened the prince's stay with a disgraceful campaign against the dynasty, avoiding, for lack of material, any direct attack on the prince himself, but revamping with great elaboration all the ancient scandals about the lives of the Georges. The prince said nothing, but when the royal party was once again upon the sea, he referred to the campaign, asking Watson what he thought of it. Watson, naturally somewhat embarrassed, replied that in his opinion no self-respecting person paid the slightest attention to what the paper had said.

"But I have read everything nevertheless," observed the prince, "and have carefully filed away the articles in my scrap-book. The colonial ministers were greatly worried and asked my permission to suppress the paper. I would not hear of it. That would only have given the beggars the advertisement they sought."

Watson lays great stress on the new king's ability as an orator of the convincing type, paying his colonial speeches made the deepest impressions everywhere and his famous "Wake up, England," speech upon his return literally eclipsed the oratory of Salisbury, Rosebery and Chamberlain, who spoke upon that occasion.

Watson attributes much of this success to the clear enunciation of the king, saying it was a positive revelation to the colonials, accustomed to the drawling, affected half-swallowed words of English orators.

"Why," exclaimed the Canadians, "he speaks like a Canadian," and they asked themselves: "Why have we been sending our sons and daughters at great expense to England to acquire the right accent, when our future king speaks with none of these affectations which we have always imagined to be the hallmark of good breeding?"

"If King Edward," adds Mr. Watson, "was everywhere regarded as the arbiter of style, King George has already become for his subjects are arbiter of diction."

TRUST COMPANY SUES GEORGE GOULD

TOLEDO, Ohio, Sept. 15.—Alleging a violation of the intents and purposes of an agreement between it and the Pittsburg-Toledo syndicate (George Gould and others), the Mercantile Trust Company of New York has filed in the United States court here a suit against the Wabash Railroad and Francis H. Skelding and Henry W. McMaster as receivers of the Wabash-Pittsburg terminal railway company, asking for the return to the complainant, as trustee, of the certificates of the entire capital stock of the Pittsburg Terminal Railway company and the bonds of the Pittsburg Terminal Railway and Coal company, amounting to about $14,000,000.

The future control of the Wabash lines of Toledo is more or less involved in the suit.

JAPANESE WOMAN TRIES SUICIDE

OAKLAND, Cal., Sept. 15.—Miglio Juanena, a Japanese woman, believed to be insane, shot herself at the police station this morning, with a tiny hammerless revolver after she had been taken into custody while wandering about the streets talking to herself. The woman had the weapon concealed in her clothing and while the officer who had taken her in charge was making his report she fired the shot, intending to commit suicide. She was not seriously wounded, the bullet passing through the lower jaw and being afterwards removed.

TOBACCO BARNS ARE BURNED BY NIGHT RIDERS

BROOKVILLE, Ky., Sept. 15.—Night riders, presumably, burned two barns in Bracken county last night and although the losses were small, both equity and non-equity men suffered, the barns of W. O. Broadford, an equity society solicitor, and George B. Kenney, a non-equity planter, being burned.

Bands of masked men appeared simultaneously at both places after midnight and were seen setting fire to the buildings.

During the night rider troubles in Bracken county last summer, Kenney permitted the state militia to encamp on his farm and since that time he has frequently been threatened with violence.

DAHLMAN WINS SECOND POINT IN THE CONTEST

OMAHA, Sept. 15—The recount of the Democratic vote for governor at the primaries was completed this afternoon, giving Governor Shallenberger a net gain of 83, but still leaving Mayor Dahlman a majority of over 200. After the recount was completed, representatives of Governor Shallenberger served a formal demand on the canvassing board that about 800 votes be thrown out on account of alleged irregularities. It is not announced whether Governor Shallenberger will appeal to the courts in his efforts to prevent Mayor Dahlman being declared the nominee of the party.

Potash, which is produced only in Germany, is used extensively in production of fertilizers in America. Recently the German government took over many of the mines and established a practical monopoly seriously affecting existing German contracts.

ENGINEER KILLED IN WRECK.

COFFEYVILLE, Kan., Sept. 15.—Running at a rate of thirty-five miles an hour, the engine of a Missouri-Kansas and Texas passenger train blew up near here today killing Horace Holloway, the engineer, and fatally injuring Fireman L. E. Goodrich.

None of the passengers were injured.

MURDERERS CAUGHT ON TRIVIAL CLUES

Criminals Are Very Forgetful Persons and Often Foolish.

Criminals are very forgetful persons. The famous series of frauds on the Bank of England by the Benson brothers a generation ago was terminated by the fact that the forgers of the drafts forgot to date the last one presented. This almost incredible blunder led to the breakup of the most dangerous band of criminals England has ever known.

An uneasy conscience gave away Dougal, the Moat Farm murderer. He had presented a forged check on his victim's banking account, and the clerk, not recognizing the signature, asked Dougal to wait a few moments. Convinced that it was a trick to detain him until the police were summoned, the wretched man bolted; and that set in motion a train of suspicions that eventually resulted in the discovery of one of the most cold blooded crimes in the history of murder.

Any detective of experience will tell you that most criminals are fools, which is a good thing in the long run for those whose business it is to detect crime.

There was a case in the midlands nearly twenty years ago which concerned a man who spent many days planning a woman's murder and disguising his own personality so that no-body could ever suspect him of the crime. Then, when his plans were completed, he lured the unfortunate woman to a lonely place and murdered her.

He was more than astonished to find himself under arrest within an hour of the discovery of the dead body, but it was no wonderful feat of detection after all. In his haste and confusion the murderer had actually left his visiting card on his victim's body.

A child's penney toy lantern directly led to the hanging of Fowler and Milsom for the Muswell Hill murder. It was a lucky clew, that finding of the child whose toy had been left behind in the house with the body of Mr. Smith, the murdered man. It was the property of Fowler's little brother, and the child's innocent pleasure at the recovery of his lantern was the culminating stroke in one of the greatest tragedies of the last fifty years.

Clothes played a prominent part in the Yarmouth Beach murder case of nine years ago, but it was a boot lace that finally fastened the crime on Bennett. That trivial boot lace had been used to strangle the poor woman who died where so many had found holiday happiness; and those who attended the trial will never forget the profound impression created by the production of the string.

Upon a certain occasion a prominent merchant and railway magnate was talking in the street to a friend of his, who was eminent in the service of the state. A young man passed by and, to the astonishment of the former, his companion nodded pleasantly to him. "Who was that?" asked the railway director, thinking he might have been mistaken.

"Oh, that is Mr. Blank, the well known philanthropist."

Now the gentleman of the railways knew Mr. Blank by another name and in a different capacity; in fact he was one of the clerks in the employ of the railway of which he was a director. Examination of the books confirmed the worst suspicions, for the pseudo philanthropist had been robbing his employers for years in order to gratify his ambition to get into society. Had it not been for that casual recognition in public the company would have lost thousands more than it did.

That was trivial chance of course, but it was more than this which caused Mrs. Dyer, the Reading baby farmer, to wrap one of the bodies of her victims in a piece of brown paper bearing her own name and address. It broke away and floated to the top of the river.

But all great criminal cases have turned more or less on trivial things. A railway ticket played a prominent part in the recent trial at Newcastle of Alexander Dickman, charged with the murder of Nesbit, the colliery cashier. It bore the name of one station and was given up at another.

Half an addressed envelope convicted a murderer twenty years ago, although the name and address had nothing to do with him except that the other half was found in his bedroom. A piece of a file convicted a murderer named Orrock, who is now forgotten but whose crime excited tremendous interest some years ago. Armed with half of a common file the police tracked him down after one of the finest feats of detective work in the annals of detection.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN SUICIDES.

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Sept. 15.—Col. W. W. Vestal, a veteran of the Civil War and former newspaper man, prominent in business and Republican politics, was found dead today on a couch in his office, a gas tube in his mouth and the gas turned on. Financial troubles, incident to conducting a real estate proposition was the cause. He left letters to his wife and friends explaining this.

CUBS WIN; GIANTS AND PIRATES DIVIDE; OAKS LOSE AGAIN TO ANGELS

OAKS RECEIVE THIRD STRAIGHT RAP IN SOUTH

When Angels Score, Wolverton Kicks and Forfeits Game, 9-0.

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 15.—Los Angeles took the third straight game from Oakland today, the game being forfeited to Dillon by Umpire McGreevy on account of kicking by Cameron and Wolverton over a close decision in the seventh inning. With one out and two men on bases, Christian was relieved by Lively in this inning. Orendorff and Nagle were on bases and Lively then hit Howard, filling all the bases. Orendorff scored a moment later on Dillon's single.

The decision was close and Cameron, thinking the side was retired, made no effort to throw to the plate to cut off Nagle. Cameron kicked so hard that McGreevy ordered him off the field. Manager Wolverton also was ordered off, but both men were so slow in leaving that McGreevy declared the game forfeited to Los Angeles, 9 to 0. The score:

BRILLIANT WORK OF THESE TWO PLAYERS HAS ENABLED WASHINGTON SENATORS TO MAKE GOOD SHOWING

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—It has often been said that change of scene does good to a ball player, managers included. Such has been the case with Jimmy McAleer, the manager of the local team. Last season McAleer was a rank failure at St. Louis, so the Browns' management let him go. Since taking hold of the Senators McAleer has made a great showing. The team is now higher in the race than ever before, and the clever pilot is sure that next year the Senators will be in the first division. The leader of the local team does not wield any mystic wand, nor is there anything mysterious about the system he puts in effect in handling his players. He undoubtedly knows as much baseball as any other manager, but for all that he could not accomplish anything unless he had the material on his team which could execute. Since taking hold of the local team McAleer has made many changes which have improved the club in many ways. Much of the team's good showing is due to the fine work of Kid Elberfeld at third and Cy Milan in the outfield. The former has braced up the infield and has injected ginger into the team. Milan has improved wonderfully since last year. He has been batting hard and fielding in sensational style. Manager McAleer recently stated that Milan will be one of the greatest in the game next season.

MAGNATES OF VALLEY LEAGUE DIVIDE COIN; GAME SUNDAY

VISALIA, Sept. 15.—The players of the Visalia ball team were given their pay checks this morning, when the 1910 playing season came to an end. The local fans were cheated out of a final game Sunday, when the Hanford team decided to stay away, but most of them have had a satiety of baseball anyway.

This afternoon an endeavor was being made by local players to arrange a game with Bakersfield for Sunday next, to be played in the southern city, the locals' share to be divided among the players. It is believed the arrangements will be made. Those making the trip would include practically all of the local players.

The balance of $333 remaining in the league treasury after paying the National Commission $60 for the privilege of coming into the fold of organized ball under the Class D rating, has been divided among the Visalia, Tulare and Bakersfield teams, $111 each. The money coming just now when funds to pay salaries are scarce is mightily appreciated. Manager Young also received today $75 as the local club's share of the gate receipts at Hanford Sunday.

The treasury balance above referred to was the result of laying aside 5 per cent of the gate receipts of every game played, this taking the place of forfeit money at the opening of the season. It was the intention to assist any club financially embarrassed, but none of the fund was used for the purpose.

Plans for next season are already under way with a proposition to make it a six-team league, including Visalia, Tulare, Bakersfield, Hanford, Fresno and Madera or Merced.

CITY LEAGUE RACE GETTING VERY CLOSE

Local fans are taking more than passing interest in the double-header scheduled for Sunday in Fresno City League. Both games will be pulled off at Recreation Park. In the morning at 10:30, the Rittels and Hickmans will clash and in the afternoon at 3 the Kutners and McAfees will try conclusions.

Now that the second division teams have strengthened, the league race is becoming intensely exciting. If the Rittels and Kutners prove winners in the coming series, two teams will be tied for first place and two on even terms for second position. New talent will appear in the various lineups and the fans are promised two real diamond struggles.

A COUNTRY OF TOYS.

There is no country in the world where there are so many toy shops as in Japan. In all the towns and in most of the villages there is a children's bazaar, and the neighborhood of the principal temples is crowded with stalls containing things to amuse children. At the great religious festivals, even the poorest are to be met with their arms full of toys to take home, and the number of men and women who earn a livelihood by itinerant street shows got up solely to amuse the children, can be counted by hundreds. These entertainments include theatricals where brave deeds are performed by heroic warriors, story tellers, song singers, and conjurers.—From the Wide World.

C. MATHEWSON AND BIG CHIEF MYERS TO GO ON THE STAGE

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Christy Mathewson, the leading pitcher of the New York National League baseball team, is going to become an actor. So is "Big Chief" Myers, the premier catcher of the New York National League team. Beginning October 24th they will appear in a sketch called "Curves," at a leading vaudeville house.

Mathewson will have an opportunity to illustrate some of his celebrated shoots.

CHARLES EVANS, JR. A WINNER AT GOLF

BROOKLINE, Mass., Sept. 15.—Three mid-western golfers and a fourth, who plays from Stockbridge, Mass., put two Boston district players, a New Yorker and a Toledo man out of the running today in the third round of the national amateur championship.

The winners were W. C. Fownes, Jr., Oakmont Club, Pittsburg; Charles Evans, Jr., Edgewater Club, Chicago; Warren K. Wood, Homewood Club, Chicago and W. R. Tuckerman, Stockbridge Club. These four are sure of medals from the association.

Custody of the Havemeyer cup, given to the club represented by the champion, goes with Saturday's winner with young, "Chick" Evans, who today defeated Frederick Hereshoff, the Metropolitan champion, and a hot favorite for the title.

The demoralization of Hereshoff's game, after three days of unapproachable golf, was the surprise of the day. Evans won 11 up, 10 to play.

NEW FOOTBALL IS POPULAR.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The new football has won a notable victory in the New York public schools. Tabooed last year by the high school athletics committee of the board of education the game will be permitted under the revised rules this fall. James E. Sullivan, secretary of the Amateur Athletic Union, is one of the members of the committee.

"The school athletics can begin practice as soon as they like," said Mr. Sullivan, in announcing the committee decision, "but if it is found accidents continue to occur, the committee on athletics will prepare further modifications of the rules under which the boys will be allowed to play."

DICKINSON, FORMER TIGER, IS IN TOWN

Dickinson, the ex-Tiger outfielder, arrived in town yesterday from the mountains above Shaver Lake where he spent a vacation hunting and fishing in the Big Creek country. "Dick" looks the picture of health. He leaves to join the Madera Coyotes to play two games against the Modesto Reds. Later he will return to the mountains to complete his vacation trip.

AND HE GAVE IT.

"You may say what you like against young ministers, but I have nothing but praise for our young pastor," the pompous Mr. Brown remarked as he passed out of the church. "Nothing but praise!"

"So I observed," dryly retorted the deacon who had passed the plate.—From Harper's.

PURPLE AND GOLD IS REPRESENTED ON CAMPUS

Fresno Hi Footballers Get Into Uniform for Initial Workout.

Under the eagle eye of Captain Chris Monson, star fullback of the 1909 Purple and Gold eleven, the 1910 squad of footballers of Fresno High school assembled in uniform on the campus yesterday afternoon at the close of school for the initial workout of the season. Seventeen young huskies donned uniform and a half hour of diligent tackling was put on before several score of admiring students.

A half dozen of the old timers were in harness and many new faces were out. The Hall brothers, formerly of Santa Cruz Hi, showed up well. They will probably make the first team. Archie Bassett is manager of the Hi crew with Coach Benner again at the helm in that department.

This afternoon a football rally will be held in the assembly hall. Several speeches will be made. It is hoped to have twenty-five candidates in uniform within the next week. From this number Captain Monson believes he can pick a winning aggregation and revive school spirit locally in football.

TRANS-ATLANTIC RECORD.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—The giant Cunarder Maretania hung up a new trans-Atlantic record today over the short course from Daunt Rock to Ambrose Channel lightship, covering the distance in 4 days, 10 hours and 48 minutes—three minutes less than her previous trans-Atlantic record.

THE HARVESTER STEPS A MILE IN 2:01 1-4, BREAKING OWN RECORD

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Sept. 15.—At the state fair track today, The Harvester, the great brown horse owned by August Uihelin of Milwaukee, piloted by Ed Geers, broke his own and the world's record for trotting stallions of 2:02 by stepping a mile, paced by a runner, in 2:01 1-4. Horse and driver were given a great demonstration by the throng which jammed the stands and overflowed against the track fences to the turns.

The Chamber of Commerce stake of $2000 for 2:09 trotters, unfinished from Wednesday, developed a genuine sensation and gave Geers another honor. Three heats of this event had been raced at rundown Wednesday. Soprano had taken the first two heats and was just brushed out by Oro Belfast in the third. The wise ones figured that the finish on Thursday would be between Soprano and Oro. However, at the resumption along came Geers with Demarest and took three heats and the race.

He earned his victory, too, for in each instance the great Soprano carried him down the stretch to the wire at a heart breaking clip and the last time the crowd was in doubt of the winner until the judges announced the result.

SUMMARY.

The Chamber of Commerce stake, 2:09 trotting, 3 in 5, purse $2000 (unfinished from Wednesday)—Demarest, won; Soprano, second; Oro Belfast, third. Best time, 2:06 1-4.

2:04 trotting, 2 in 3, purse $1200—Bob Douglas won; Jack Leyburn, second; Sonoma Girl, third. Best time, 2:01 1-4.

2:21 trotting, 3 in 5, purse $1200—Creighton, first; Betsy G., second; Harry Winters, third. Best time, 2:09 1-4.

2:08 trotting, 2 in 3, purse $1200—General H, won; Lady Stately, second; Willie, third. Time, 2:05 1-4.

2:04 pace, 2 in 3, purse $1200—May Day, won; Earl, Jr., second; Ethan Roberts, third. Time, 2:03 1-4.

Special against time, trotting to beat world's stallion record of 2:01 held by himself—The Harvester, 2:01 1-4. Notelly by Moke (Geers), won. Time, 2:01 1-4. Time by quarters, 30 1-4, 1:00 3-4, 1:30 1-2, 2:01 1-4.

"MYSTERIOUS" MITCHELL OF SEALS STILL HUGE MYSTERY

"Mysterious" Mitchell is a consistent performer. The stranger in a strange land still remains undiscovered, in spite of the efforts of the newspaper sleuths to find for him a name. First of all, it was decided to tag him as Pitcher Kroh of the Cubs, who was on the suspended list. But when it was learned that Kroh is a blonde and a left-handed pitcher, that discovery was scratched.

The latest guess, and the one to which the discoverers have been clinging most fondly, was that Mitchell was pitching under his own name and that in reality he is Bob Mitchell, a former University of Mississippi pitcher. Inasmuch as Bob Mitchell refused to pitch Sunday games, and later disappeared from view, it looked very much as if the mysterious one had been located, but the discovery was knocked in the head when a dispatch came last night stating that Bob Mitchell is a left-hander and small of stature, weighing about 155 pounds. F. Mitchell happens to be a right-hander and weighs probably 185 pounds. So there you are. We're on again, off again, and apparently as far from the truth as ever.

MAY BE McQUILLEN

A special dispatch to the San Francisco "Chronicle," from Chicago, hints very strongly that the new man might possibly be Pitcher McQuillen of the Philadelphia Nationals, who stands suspended. The story reads.

"It seems to be the consensus of opinion in Chicago that the mysterious Coast pitcher is McQuillen, suspended by Philadelphia Nationals."

Asked for a description of McQuillen, Chicago replies:

"McQuillen is a right-hander, about 6 feet in height, weight about 190 pounds, erect, well built, watches bases closely, very quick in movements. Has dark curly hair. Would not object to Sunday baseball."

This description fits Mitchell to a certain extent, as Bob Mitchell is out of the running, it is possible that the Coaster hails from Philadelphia. At all events the report is worth investigation.

MONTE ATTELL DEFEATS MORVIC IN SEVEN FAST ROUNDS

(Special to the Republican.)

BAKERSFIELD, Sept. 15.—Monte Attell defeated Young Morvic here tonight before 500 fight fans, when Morvic's seconds threw up the sponge in the middle of the seventh round. The mill was a whirlwind affair from start to finish with Attell doing all of the aggressive work. The betting was 2 to 1 on Attell.

Young Morvic landed but one healthy punch during the bout. That was in the second, when he brought the claret from Attell's nose. Morvic was knocked down for the count on five occasions. He was game to the core, however, and the audience applauded his futile efforts to overhaul the shifty Attell. Jimmy Murray was referee, Harry Foley was in Attell's corner with Jack McVey as Morvic's chief second. Attell's fast work was marvelous and completely swamped Morvic.

The bout was pulled off in Ezra Rehfeld's new open air arena at Recreation Park under powerful electric lights. The fight was scheduled to go twenty rounds.

THE SIXTH SENSE.

In a primary school examination over which I once had the pleasure to preside, one of the questions was with regard to the five senses. One of the bright pupils handled the subject thus:

"The five senses are sneezing, sobbing, crying, yawning, coughing. By the sixth sense is meant an extra one which some folks have. This is snoring."—From Woman's Home Companion.

WORLD'S SERIES BETWEEN CUBS AND ATHLETICS OPENS OCT. 16TH

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—Chairman Herrman of the National Commission said yesterday he had practically given up hope of seeing the world's series begin before October 16, the day after the St. Louis Nationals and Chicago Cubs are scheduled to play the last game of the season.

Two weeks have passed since the National Commission instructed President Lynch to meet with President Murphy of the Cubs and President Robison of St. Louis and attempt to induce them to arrange their schedule so that the world's series could be started a week earlier. Lynch has made no progress, as several games which were to have been played by the Cubs and St. Louis have been postponed on account of bad weather since that time, and there is hardly a chance of an arrangement being made which would permit the world series to be played at an earlier date than the present schedule will permit.

KILLED "STEALING RIDE."

HOME RUN IN 10TH BY BERRY WINS FOR SEALS

Roy Hitt's Fence Ball Beats Villagers in Extra-Round Battle.

OAKLAND, Sept. 15.—Catcher Berry was the first man at bat in the second half of the tenth inning of the game today when the score stood 1 to 1. Berry sent one of Hitt's benders soaring over the left field fence, winning from Vernon. San Francisco made the other run in the third inning. Madden was on third when Mohler hit an easy infield grounder to Roy Brashear, who threw to the plate. While Brown and Burrell were running Madden down, Mohler went to third and scored on Shaw's single. The score:

FOLLY FELLOWS' WHIMS

CATCHING AT A STRAW.

Miss Pepsy—Did you notice that Philadelphia girl yawning while you were talking smart things?

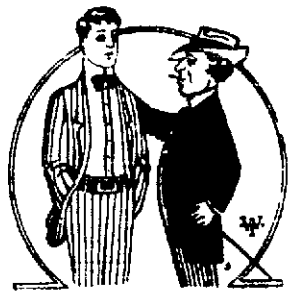

De Hibrow—Yaas; I kept on thinking she might nod and say something in her sleep.

BEFORE AN OLD MASTER.

Mrs Dingle—Seems to me that $500 is an awful price to pay for such an old painting.

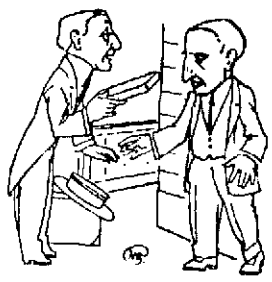

Dealer—But the frame is very new.

A RETORT.

"Take my advice, old chap."

"As it is the first thing you ever offered I'll do it."

MORE BUNCO.

Book Agent—This magazine contains the last story written by—

Wise Guy—That'll do. Seems to me that author did nothing in his life but write last stories.

BY A SQUEEZE.

Philadelphia Girl (to Montana Guest)—Is it true that a girl in your state was hugged to death by a grizzly bear?

"Not quite. The girl won in the first round."

THEY COME HIGH.

Customer (getting measured)—How much are these trousers going to cost me?

Tailor—Twelve dollars. How many pockets do you want in them?

"None. I shan't need any pocket after I've paid your bill."

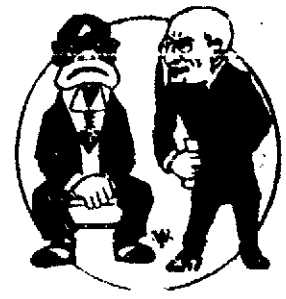

TIPS FOR LAUGHS

HOPED HE WAS RIGHT.

Old Dad—Ah, ah, young man, so I have caught you kissing my daughter tonight!

Y. M.—I trust there is no mistake. The light is rather dim, and I should hate to think I'd make a mistake and kissed the cook.

SOMETHING IN IT.

Lawyer (to colored witness)—What's your first name?

"Ham."

"Any eggs go with it?"

"Ef I don't git de chicken, yessur."

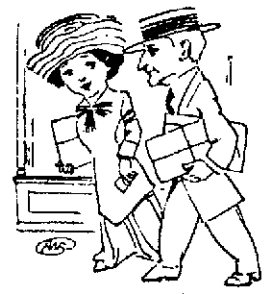

AT THE DARKHURST CLUB.

Ebenezer Coons—Mistah President, I move yo' dat Nicodemus Kink be expelled.

"De membah will please expostulate his charges."

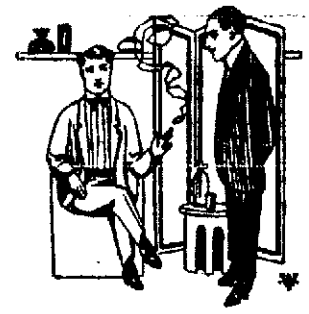

Mr. Coons—He broke inter a feather shop. Ef a man wants feathers he ought ter git 'em wid de live bird.

MARKED DOWN.

"These are great bargain days."

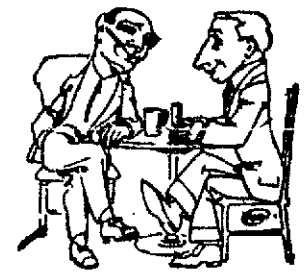

"Yes; you can buy a prizefight film or a Halley comet dugout at your own price."

NOT QUITE THE SAME.

"My man joined the Burns club the other night."

"My man used to be a fireman himself."

MORE RETURNS.

"Do you believe in this theory of never come back?"

"Not altogether. There are poor kin, coughs, collectors and cats.

TOUCHES OF MIRTH

EXCEPT NOAH AND FAMILY.

"He can trace his ancestry to the flood."

"Oh, everybody was in the swim then!"

A SPORT TO THE LAST.

"Gaily blew out the gas and was found dead."

"True to his nature, he went off on a blowout."

WHEN HE BACKED UP.

Dr. Paresis—Miss Amy, how do you account for the biblical story of Methuselah's longevity?

"Easy. There were no doctors in those days."

RADIANT.

"Is Miss Twinkle such a beauty?"

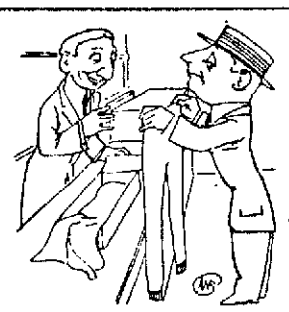

"Beauty, my boy!. There never was a car so crowded but that she could get a seat."

MYRTLE'S EXPLANATION.

Mamma—Myrtle, dear, was it necessary to spend fifteen minutes bidding Harry good night?

"Yes, mamma; Harry stutters so when he is agitated."

KNEW HIS BUSINESS.

Customer—This underwear is too large for me.

Clerk—It'll fit all right after it's washed a few times.

HERE'S A BUNCH OF JOY

SOCIAL SLASHES.

Miss Gabber—Miss Highbob says you're crazy.

Miss Cutchaw—No wonder. When I met her on the avenue my head was turned.

CLEVER IDEA.

Roxana—My doctor says I should go to Germany for my complexion, but the trip is so expensive.

Juliet—Why don't you have it sent over?

HOW SHE WON HIM.

"What became of the Willoby girl that Gawkins flirted with at the summer hotel?"

"You mean the girl he thought he flirted with? She married him."

A COMPROMISE.

Stayisle—Won't you sing, "Backward, Turn Backward O Time," Miss Lydia?

"It might wake father, but I'll turn back the clock."

WHAT ONE MAY SOON HEAR.

"Shillum has got back from Europe."

"So? Did he kill his wife before he left the other side?"

A JOKE.

"Hear about a college that gave a cartoonist a degree?"

"That must have been funny."

FOR THE OFF HOUR

STILL GOING.

Lorena—Is Jack wealthy?

Eloise—Looks like it. We've been engaged two months, and he seems still to have money.

STOPPED CALLING.

Mistress—What's become of your old beau, Katy? I haven't seen him around lately.

"No, mum; he's married now."

"To whom?"

"Me, mum."

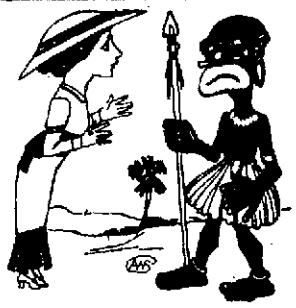

ALL ALIKE TO HIM.

Customer—I want a pair of trousers.

Tailor—Yes, sir; wedding or everyday?

"Yes, or funeral—anything, old man."

CANNIBAL TASTES DIFFER.

Miss Hobble—I think little bits of children are nice, don't you?

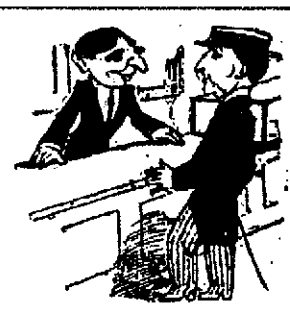

Old Unky—Perhaps little bits would be, but I don't like 'em whole.

SAID BY THE SAGES.

"There are no sign boards on the road to ruin."

"Aye, all who travel that route have the right of way."

WITH A STRING TO IT.

Smart Clerk—We have something that will come back.

"I suppose it's a rubber ball with a cord."

GET IN ON THE JOKER

SO NEAR AND YET SO FAR.

Dippy—I heard you lost $10 on the ball game.

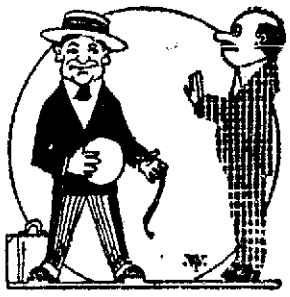

Slippy—It is not lost. I know where it is. Brown has it.

HOLDING HIM DOWN.

Farmer Wiggs—Mandy, here's some cheap spittoons marked down.

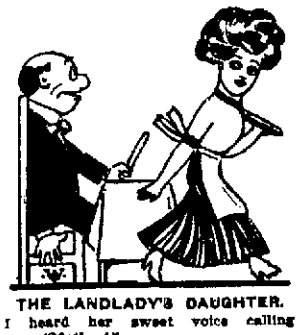

Mrs. Wiggs—Utah, when you get so perked up you can't spit out of the window it's time for you to quit chewing.

ONE THING BEGETS ANOTHER.

Agent—Can I sell you some prizefight films?

Victim—No, thank you. I've got some. If you have a good kicking machine I'll buy that.

THE LANDLADY'S DAUGHTER.

I heard her sweet voice calling "Mother!"
It was then that I felt quite abashed.
For she yelled, "How'll I fix the potaters—
Fried, bonized, baked, biled or mashed?"

SOCIAL SANITATION.

"Tommy, your uncle will be here for dinner today, and you must have your face washed."

"Yes, maw, but s'posin' he don't come, what then?"

CAME PREPARED.

The President (at the Liars' club)—Prizes will be awarded for the best yarn. Cut loose.

Member—Before we start by-my-dears. They're fine.

The President—You get the medal.

RADIANT.

"Is Miss Twinkle such a beauty?"

"Beauty, my boy!. There never was a car so crowded but that she could get a seat."

MYRTLE'S EXPLANATION.

Mamma—Myrtle, dear, was it necessary to spend fifteen minutes bidding Harry good night?

"Yes, mamma; Harry stutters so when he is agitated."

KNEW HIS BUSINESS.

Customer—This underwear is too large for me.

Clerk—It'll fit all right after it's washed a few times.

COOK'S BACKER IS IN THE FAR NORTH

Discredited Explorer Himself May Be in Search of His Lost Records.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 15.—The Danish steamer Hans Egede arrived here today with the news that John R. Bradley, the financial backer of Dr. Frederick A. Cook's North Pole expedition, was on his way to Etah to procure the much talked of records and instruments which Cook said he left at that Eskimo settlement northeast of Greenland. The captain of the Hans Egede believes Cook is with Bradley.

The Hans Egede, which is the vessel on which the explorer traveled to civilization, fell in with a yacht at Godhaven, a Danish settlement on the south coast of Disco Island, Greenland, and in the course of exchanges between the masters learned that Bradley was aboard the other craft.

The polar hunt promoter admitted his identity and explained that he was bound for Etah to recover whatever had been left there by Dr. Cook. He refused, however, either to deny or to confirm the report that he was accompanied by the explorer.

The government vessel also brings the information that two missionaries who are working among the Eskimos who accompanied Cook on this expedition, say that these Eskimos insist that the doctor reached the North Pole, as he claims, prior to its discovery by Commander Peary.

NATURALIZATION FEES ARE ARGUED IN COURT

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—The District Court of Appeals for the First district, sitting enbanc here today, heard arguments on the appeal against the decision of Superior Judge Seawell, declaring unconstitutional the recent act of Congress which provides that one-half of all naturalization fees shall be retained by the county clerk before whom application is made for citizenship papers.

Assistant City Attorney J. S. English asked for the affirmation of Judge Seawell's decree. He argued that the charter of the city provided that the city county clerk must turn into the city and county treasury all fees collected, and that it was beyond the power of Congress to interfere in local government by virtually altering the salary of the clerk.

This is the first time the constitutionality of the act of Congress referred to has been tested in court.

GERMAN PATENT QUESTION IS DISTURBING AMERICANS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—Efforts of German manufacturers to secure the abrogation or material amendment of the existing patents convention between the United States and Germany, as indicated by press reports, are viewed with some concern at the State Department.

There has been no official communication recently on the subject, but it is surmised that the German manufacturers are desirous of having the convention amended on the lines of the convention between British patent treaty 30 65 to require Americans taking out German patents to manufacture the patented articles in Germany.

"This would be a serious blow to American manufacturers and it can be safely predicted that any attempt in that direction would be strongly resisted by the State Department.

DIPLOMAT'S DAUGHTER MARRIES

BERLIN, Sept. 14.—Olga, daughter of Baron and Baroness Ferdinand Von Nordenflycht, and Hans Von Kaltenborn of New York were married at the Emperor William memorial church today.

The bride's father is the German consul general at Rio Janeiro and formerly occupied a similar post at New York. The bridegroom was formerly the tutor of Vincent Astor, son of Col. John Jacob Astor.

CHILD KILLED BY GUN.

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 14.—The accidental discharge of a shotgun in the hands of a man who was examining the weapon, caused the death today of the 20-months-old child of Frank Baellengero at Davenport, a few miles up the coast.

EXPECT MORE RAIN; RAISIN DAMAGE LIKELY

Showers Forecast for Today Will Cause Mildew to Set in.

RAIN RECORD BROKEN

Fall for Season One Inch, Most to Same Date for 23 Years.

With raisins already soaked by an inch of rain, Fresno, the apparent center of intensity of the storm, and more showers predicted for today, it is believed at this time that there is a very large chance of heavy damage to the raisin crop.

After a soaking rain had fallen for hours early yesterday, the weather grew less threatening, but the sun had small chance at it. Experienced men estate that if this muggy condition lasts today, the raisin crop will everywhere suffer to an extent which would be hard to estimate, but would undoubtedly be serious, owing largely to inroads of mildew.

The weather office reports a low barometric pressure, that covers all parts parts of this coast, indicates continued unsettled weather, with probably showers today. No settled weather may be looked for until after today, it is stated.

Meantime, the present storm has broken all records for twenty-three years. The total rainfall here up to 5 o'clock last night was one inch, the heaviest for any season to this date within a period of over a score of years.

Early yesterday it was stated that all paper trays were practically gone, and raisins lost. It was further said that damage was worse in Kings than in Fresno county. Without more rain, and with a good sun today, it would be possible to save the crop by turning at once. It is pointed out that the downpour came at a very critical time, just after a bulk of the raisins had been turned.

An Associated Press dispatch from San Francisco says on the storm:

GENERAL RAIN.

"Rain was general throughout the state last night and today. A general rain at this time of the year is rather unusual, only four such having been recorded during the last sixty years. The raisin growers received two warnings of the impending storm and, according to reports received by Forecaster McAdie here, say their losses were not great, as ample time was given them to stack their trays.

"The forest service informed the weather bureau today that all of the forest fires in this state had been extinguished by the rain. The rain has also proved beneficial to the agricultural interests, as the dry season has been unusually prolonged.

"The heaviest rain has fallen in the raisin district, three-fourths of an inch having fallen about Fresno while it has tapered down to one-fourth of an inch as far north as Sacramento. More rain is predicted for the northern section of the state.

"Although the storm came from the south, the rainfall has not been as heavy in that section as in the central counties."

WARNING LATE.

It is not strictly correct to say, however, that the growers received two warnings of the rain and had ample time in which to stack their trays. While the forecast from San Francisco the day preceding the first of the storm was for showers, the local forecast was for fair weather, and growers who called up the local weather office by telephone were given this forecast. Thus, practically the first chance any grower had of learning the San Francisco forecast for rain was when he read it next morning in his paper, at practically the same time the water was beginning to pour down.

For this reason, partly, not a great deal of stacking was done in some localities and it is stated that many of the growers took the chance and left their goods spread out again yesterday, in the downpour of the early morning.

Thus, it is believed that damage has already resulted, especially in the case of goods that was out on paper trays, and it is believed that if forecasts do not go wrong today, an immense additional damage will be done.

What this would do to prices for raisins is a matter merely of prediction, but high figures would be looked for, and it is pointed out that the effects would reach at least through a good part of the next raisin season.

About midnight last night there was a slight precipitation here and signs were threatening.

BEWHISKERED HINDU HAS $500 IN SILVER AND GOLD IN POCKET

When searched at the jail last night by Jailer Bob Rutherford, a bewhiskered Hindu, who gave his name as Gugham, was found to have over $500 in gold and silver in his possession. The money was concealed in a small sack formerly used for holding samples of wheat and barley. The sack had the mark of a prison jute mill. While searching Gugham's pockets, Rutherford saw the corner of a gunny sack protruding from over the belt of the Hindu's trousers.

Pulling the sack from its hiding place, the jailer felt of it and discovered that it contained money. Untying the string, which held the mouth of the sack together, Rutherford poured the coin onto his desk. He was astonished when several gold pieces rolled out mixed with two handfuls of silver. In an inside pocket Rutherford found a letter written in 1905 by a British army captain, who stated that the bearer of the letter was a competent servant, having worked under the writer for several years. The letter recommended the Hindu to anyone who needed a faithful servant.

Gugham refused to state where he secured the large amount of money. Four other Hindus arrested with Gugham by Patrolman Charley McKee were "dead broke." Gugham was the only man in the crowd who had anything on him. The five Hindus were charged with disturbing the peace and drunkenness.

REEDLEY GROWERS FOR PUBLICITY ON AGENCY

Members of Concern Meet; Uphold Briscoe in Suit for Accounting.

A meeting of about fifty fruit growers who entered into contracts with the California Dried Fruit Agency was held at Reedley last night to determine upon some concerted attitude on the matter of the affairs of the organization, which have now approached a crisis. The upshot of the meeting was a determination to uphold and probably emulate the course pursued by S. M. Briscoe, who has brought suit for an accounting of the affairs of the agency.

At the meeting last night the sentiment was in favor of the course which Briscoe has pursued.

Locally, the case stands about as it was some days ago, except that more people connected in a business way with the agency are coming in daily to back up Briscoe's hand.

ALL MEMBERS MUST VOTE ON LOCAL OPTION

Supervisors Delay Action Until Mitchell's Return From East.

PROTEST OF WINE MEN

Bristol Comes in for Large Share of Abuse in the Arguments.

The supervisors will not vote on the judicial township local option election amendment to the county liquor ordinance (No. 131) until the return from the East of Supervisor Mitchell, who has thirty days' leave of absence from the state, accompanying Promoter Granger in the interests of his Interurban road.

This was the outcome of about three hours of arguments and appeals made to the board yesterday afternoon in the interest of the wine men and wine grape growers, protesting against the passage of the amendment. The motion to defer action was made by Supervisor Johnson, and carried unanimously. That the matter would thus be disposed of for the present was expected by the devotees of the local option amendment.

Irving B. Bristol of the Anti-Saloon League spoke not longer than ten minutes at the close of the resume of the arguments of the protestants. Excepting once, when he acknowledged he "made a slip," for which he asked pardon, he maintained an imperturbable calmness under the most trying of circumstances, and while the main speaker for the protestants indulged in personality upon personality, facing Mr. Bristol and even shaking his forefinger at him while addressing the board from outside the counter.

THEY SHOOK HANDS.

There were not a few exciting episodes during the afternoon, but after all was over there was also a general love-feast, shaking hands, mutual introductions and assurances that the differences between them were not so great as to prevent a coming together for the honest enforcement of the law, admitting that there are radicals and fanatics on both sides of the question. D. D. Allison, who for the protestants read the letter to the board from M. F. Tarpey, was especially complimentary of Mr. Bristol as "an agitator," adding good-humoredly:

"And you are one of the best, even if I do say so."

"Let's give the sheriff a chance to do his duty," may be summed up in a sentence as one of the strongest pleas put forward by the protestants that ordinance 131 should be given a fair trial in arrests and prosecutions to remedy the evils complained of in connection with the liquor business. This was not meant as saying that the present sheriff has been derelict, but that the officers of the law should be called upon to enforce the ordinance and by punishment of offenders discourage infractions.

Of course the popular sentiment in the lobby favored the protest. That was made manifest by the applause that encouraged every disparaging personal allusion to Mr. Bristol. L. R. Rogers of Las Palmas winery and distillery made the long talk for the protest in the absence of Mr. Tarpey, and he made it evident at the very beginning that he would take advantage of the occasion to ruffle Mr. Bristol with personalities. He lowered and glared at him, pointed his finger threateningly and deprecatingly at him frequently and while speaking outside of the matter before the board impressed even the impartial and unprejudiced auditor that he was injuring his own cause for the sake of the encouraging applause and appreciative laughter to disconcert the man that he was addressing in un-called-for asides. The advocates of the amendment were a woeful minority, consisting of Messrs. Bristol, Rev. J. W. Conley of the Baptist church, Dr. Thomas Boyd of the Presbyterian church and Attorney G. L. Aynesworth.

TROUBLE AT OUTSET

There was trouble at the very outset with the reading of the amendment ordinance, which was not the original draft offered by Mr. Bristol. That original asked 25 percent in a township petition for a local option election, and stated nothing about a deposit of $20 for election expenses.

Chairman Martin and the protestants wanted the original draft, but hunt high or low a copy could not be found, found.

Rogers insisted sarcastically that Bristol had to date offered three local option amendments. A dispute arose at once.

"You're thinking of past years," remarked Bristol.

"Let the dead past bury its dead. We have to do with the immediate future and taxes coming on," retorted Rogers.

It was satisfactorily explained that the present amendment is the only one ever offered in fact, and then Mr. Rogers said something about having come to protest in behalf of taxpayers, voters and business men against the enforced demand of a professional agitator receiving $300 a month for his compensation.

"You are a falsifier if you make that statement, and I will demand that you furnish the proof of your statement," shouted Bristol excitedly and rising to his feet.

There was a clash at once, things looked ominous, and Supervisor Johnson came to the rescue of Rogers to criticise Mr. Bristol's rejoinder.

CUT OUT PERSONALITIES

The latter maintained his ground, and silence having been restored he stated that the liquor agitation was on in this county long before he came to the state. This attack, he said, is a personal one. Never before had he made a slip, and he begged pardon for having forgotten himself for the moment. He had understood that effort had been made to look up his record as a muck-raker, and he had come to make a reply to the proposed personal attack on him. Again he begged pardon for his indiscretion, and asked that the personal element be eliminated and that the issue before the house be debated. The attack on him as an agitator has nothing to do with the issue because he has a right to appear as any attorney has representing a particular interest as much as Mr. Roger has.

Rogers asked whether he was there as an attorney for hire, or principle and then drew a difference between them, referring to the forefathers in their fight against King George when the latter hired Hessians, hissing the last word in the direction of Bristol and jointing the finger at him.

The lobby broke out in applause.

"Instead of being out in the vineyards and turning our raisins, or going to the circus, we are here to do dirty politics," cried Mr. Rogers dramatically. He charged that the local option had gone to supervisors and candidates to line them up, warning and threatening those that would not stand for his (Bristol's) ordinance.

Mr. Bristol questioned the earnestness of Mr. Rogers' reading of a published interview in the Republican of May 2nd on this subject of lining up candidates and denied ever having threatened a supervisor.

AN ENTERING WEDGE.

After various preliminary interruptions and denials of personal allusions Mr. Rogers launched on his main address and made much of the point that the local option ordinance is only "an entering wedge" to end eventually in prohibition, the closing down of wineries, the tearing up of vineyards—in short the confiscation of property.

Again he made allusion to meddling "busy bodies," "gentlemen drawing salaries," and "professional agitators and disturbers of the peace," facing and pointing finger at Bristol.

"Hold to the debate and not to me!" cried out Bristol. "I'm not in this thing."

"Mr. Bristol, you are the ordinance. If you had been left at home, you would never have been here to read people asunder, man against man, brother against brother, and we never would have had this election," shouted back the speaker, who then referred to his investments here, how he had made two blades of grass grow where there was one, and turning again to Mr. Bristol, he added.

"You're a parasite, living off the county of good but misguided persons."

"That's not personal?" asked Mr. Bristol, appealing to the board laughingly.

"No, that's the God's truth," put in the speaker, and the lobby went into frenzied handclapping.

Then Mr Rogers told of Mr. Bristol's experiences in Kern and Sacramento counties, when he was told the affairs of the counties are in the hands of capable men and for him to mind his own business. "And so say we in Fresno," added Mr. Rogers. Again the lobby applauded.

PROTEST PRESENTED.

Mr. Rogers asked, "What's the matter with ordinance 131? It hasn't lived long enough to have its diappers off. Why not give it a fair trial?"

He told of an interview had on Wednesday with Mayor Rowell, who told him he would and was handling the city liquor business and that the city ordinance is working better than his fondest expectations. "Give ordinance No. 131 a fair trial," asked the speaker. "If it doesn't work out well, and you are unable to enforce it, then send for Mr. Bristol and resign as supervisors," and the speaker paused for the applause which was forthcoming.

Thereupon he presented a protest signed, as he said, by over 1000 citizens, taxpayers and voters of the county, representing over 246,000 acres in vineyards, inviting attention to the signatures, the immense acreage and especially to the personnel of the signers, "the best people in our county," as he said, "the salt of the earth and the cream of Fresno's decent and respectable element."

In his argument, Mr. Rogers broadened out on the assertions that the wine man is not an ally of the saloon element nor is he in his fight, the board should go slow before working the ruin or a great injury to the viticultural industry of the state and county; that the power to govern the liquor traffic remain with the board, and that it be not forced to play dirty politics over this question, closing with another gratuitous fling to say that there is "no need for the regulation of our internal home affairs to send for a hired man to Binghampton in New York, nor to consult headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League in Ohio."

SAVING VINEYARDS.

The speaker asked what is to be done with the thousands of vines in the county fit only for the making of sweet wines and brandy, sold by car lots. He showed the production in other states in comparison, mentioning incidentally Tennessee.

"Then you claim prohibition does not prohibit?" asked Mr. Bristol.

"No, it does not."

"It helps the liquor business, then?"

"No, but it helps agitation."

Statistics were given of the vineyard industry valued at $72,000,000 in the state and employing 60,000 persons; the raisin industry, valued at $13,000,000 with a product from here sufficient to give a pound of raisins per capital for the nation.

Reference was made to the county's vineyard assessment with a money valuation "almost as much as John D. Rockefeller, the reputed backer of the Anti-Saloon League," also to the twenty-eight wineries in the county with the one at Calwa the largest in the world, representing an investment of $500,000, and it was asked whether all this wealth should depend upon its continuance or destruction upon the votes of twenty to thirty people in a township?

No fault, he insisted, had yet been found with ordinance 131. Why then amend it? Mr. Rogers argued that the supervisors should be jealous of the power granted them and not let it go to a few people, comparing the county to a corporation with the supervisors as the governing directors.

"Don't yield your power," he said, "but manage the affairs of the corporation right and the 1000 petitioners here will be with you and there will be no threat to dance to our fiddle or our pulling of the string, because we don't believe in that."

In closing the speaker filed newspaper clippings covering the subject of local option in Los Angeles and the effort to forbid the acceptance of a gift of California wine made to the cruiser California to be drunk out of a golden punch bowl and cut glasses presented to the vessel with ceremony by the people of this state, instancing these things as proof of the extreme of fanaticism.

Finally he argued that evils cannot be cured by legislation and new ordinances, but having ordinances and laws enforce them by holding up the hands of the supervisors rather than come in with new petitions. The board has fathered a child, give it a square deal to develop and let not Mr. Bristol choke it to death with his paregoric.

Mr. Rogers concluded amidst general applause.

APPEALS BY OTHERS.

Thereupon followed Charles Teague, who spoke against the "entering wedge" of local option to destroy great industry; Willis Pike speaking from the packers' standpoint to argue that to close the wineries will be to shut off the market for grape second crops, the revenue from which is enough to pay for the year's care of vineyards and taxes; T. H. Lynch, who inveighed against the hunko game in inviting people to come here to invest and then wrecking the established industries. "Stop giving more money to the Chamber of Commerce to bring out more suckers," he urged, "and have the courage to do what is right no matter what faction it may offend or displease."

Rev. Mr. Conley briefly argued that the arguments had been a good deal beside the real issue, which is whether the people can be trusted? The trend in American political life is to go back to the people and have its voice heard. Here the issue has been clouded by the dragging in of Bristol and the howling about property destruction. You can't keep a great question out of politics. The ordinance is not intended to suppress wineries or saloons but to let the people say what it wants to have done. The amendment stands for a fundamental American principle of liberty.

Messrs. Rogers and Conley had a colloquy over the question whether the latter would be willing to trust his fortune to the vote and whim of twenty or thirty people? Mr. Conley hesitatingly answered in the negative, and there was a shout of delight, but he also explained his answer to say that he does not consider the ordinance is attempting to do this.

SAVED ALLISON'S GOAT.

D. D. Allison, reading Mr. Tarpey's letter, prefaced it with personal remarks, contending that the ordinance would mean the confiscation of the property interests of two-thirds of the people of the county. He referred to the existing weather conditions to emphasize the loss of a market for undried and wet raisins and said that the winery saved his goat one year.

T. L. Reed of Reedley gladdened the protestants when he announced that this agitation seemed to him "wrong and false on the face of it," the local optionists are "not honest in their preaching," reminding him of the Pharisee of old, and Mr. Bristol of Dennis Kearney of sand lot fame, that this agitation is disrupting neighborhoods and communities; if they voted as they prayed there would be nothing to this whole thing for the "drys" did not even vote as they talked in the Reedley incorporation election.

Hector Burness, J. Y. Beveridge and Arthur Tarpey followed on particular lines in the arguments of Mr. Rogers. Rev. Mr. Boyd emphasized the fact that the ordinance amendment is nothing more than the carrying out of the principle of referendum. The lobby was delighted, when Mr. Boyd answered in response to Mr. Rogers that he believed the referendum should be had at general elections, one of the other things contended for by the protestants.

TURNED THE TABLES

Mr. Bristol summed up in close to make one telling point namely that ordinance No. 131 seeks to do nothing more than was done on a legal application for a saloon at the terminus of the Sunnyside road, when all the large land owners and vineyardists living there protested against the granting of the license and their protest was heeded.

Mr. Bristol maintained that under the representative form of government in this country the people can only speak through its representative officers and just so long the liquor and temperance interests with their divergent views must remain in politics. As for himself he was for taking the liquor question out of politics by having the people settle it themselves and the local option is a means to that end. When the time comes for prohibition that issue will be met, but that is beside the issue now. Under the local option referendum, the offending saloon man is put on guard not to run against the opposition of the majority. The speaker said also that he was for an agitation such as to do the least harm to the general public.

Mr. Bristol was brief because as he said the subject had been gone over in detail last spring when the request was made for local option by precincts and the status of the case has not been changed in any particular since.

Thereupon followed the love feast with hand shakings and good natured compliments and the motion to postpone decision as detailed above.

Among the representative men at the council chamber favoring the protest were W. R. Ellert, A. Mattei, George Kashier, K. W. Ruschhaupt, T. H. Lynch, L. B. Rogers, Hector Burness, W. J. Cleary, D. D. Allison, J. A. C. Richter, Charles Teague, Jesse Jansen, Willis Pike, G. W. Beall, J. Y. Beveridge.

The accused was cited to appear in police court at 10 o'clock this morning.
